

John T. Flynn Says:

Sees Evidence Hatred of Roosevelt Turning to Reason in Manufacturers' Resolutions

By JOHN T. FLYNN
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

From the National Manufacturers' Association which ended its labors in New York last week came the first breath of sanity which has emanated from a powerful organized business group since hatred of Roosevelt ruined thinking processes.

Bailey Hears of Tax Proposals as Legislature Nears

Some Propose 3% Sales Tax, Others a Tax of 7c on Gasoline

LEGISLATURE JAN. 9
Governor in Conference With Aides on Legislative Program

LITTLE ROCK — (AP) — Governor Carl E. Bailey said Wednesday that his budget conference had brought forth a new suggestion for increased taxation in the form of a levy on chain store operations.

He said another proposal laid before him was that the state take over "breakage" on horse and dog racing.

New Tax Suggestions

LITTLE ROCK — (AP) — Governor Carl E. Bailey said Tuesday his office had received a number of suggestions that the 32nd general assembly levy additional taxes or increase existing ones. The legislature convenes January 9.

The suggestions included a proposal that the retail sales tax be hiked from two to three per cent.

Answering a question at a press conference, Bailey said he had formed no conclusion about the suggestions.

Various Proposals

He said they included:

A proposed increase in the severance tax on oil production.

A new tax on livestock auctioneers to provide funds to match federal moneys available for combating Bang's disease among cattle.

An increase from 6 1/2 to 7 cents on each gallon of gasoline sold.

A new ad valorem tax on oil royalties.

The governor said the sales tax increase had been proposed with the common schools, university, state supported colleges and the public welfare department to share the added revenues.

The proposal for the half cent increase in the gasoline tax contemplated the placing of the additional revenue in a fund to be used solely for construction of hard-surfaced roads, Bailey said.

The governor Tuesday night was only about half way through a series of conferences with heads of state institutions and departments on biennial budgets to be submitted to the legislature for appropriations. The conferences will continue Wednesday.

Bailey said that some of the requests were "definitely in line with the previous appropriations." He said that if any trend had been developed, it was slightly upward.

Legislative Strategy

Some saw the suggestion of an increase in the gasoline tax as a buffer designed to offset demands for a reduction and thus eventually result in a compromise with the levy remaining at its present level.

Rep. John P. Vesey of Hope announced here recently that he would attempt to obtain passage of a bill cutting the tax two cents a gallon. Both houses in 1937 passed his bill calling for a one-cent reduction but it was vetoed by Bailey, who said a reduction of the bond refunding act of 1931.

Bailey said he was "delighted" with an announcement of Congressman E. C. Bathings of West Memphis that he would introduce a bill in congress to adjust freight rates. Among provisions of the proposal is on calling for application of the lowest rate on a long haul.

"Such a bill would be distasteful to the Eastern industrial group and might drive them to support a reorganization of the interstate commerce commission," Bailey said.

The recently suggested decreasing of the commission's membership to five, Bailey repeatedly has charged a "small industrial group in the East" with causing the retention of "freight rates discriminatory to the South."

Presbyterian Men Will Meet Thursday

The monthly meeting of the Men of the Church, Presbyterian, will be held at 7 o'clock Thursday night at the church. Dinner will be served at that time.

The Goodfellow's Club Hope, Arkansas

Director of Club:
Please enter my name as a member of the Goodfellow's club as I wish to help some needy child or family at Christmas time.

(Name) (Please Print)

(Street Address) (Please Print)

If you have been missed in the canvass for Goodfellow Funds you may fill out the above and mail your contribution to Hope Star. Your donation will be turned over to the club treasurer.

Hope

Star

WEATHER. Arkansas—Fair Wednesday night and Thursday; rising temperature in northwest portion Thursday.

VOLUME 40—NUMBER 53

HOPE, ARKANSAS, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1938

PRICE 5c COPY

WARNING TO ITALY

Goodfellow's Fund Rises to $170.45; Canvass Underway

First Reports From City Drive Tabulated at Noon

NEW THEATER SHOW

Benefit Performance to Be Staged Saturday Morning

The Goodfellow's Christmas cheer fund rose Wednesday to $170.45 as reports were tabulated at noon from the first day's drive in the city.

The movement, sponsored this year by the Young Business Men's association with the aid of other organizations and private citizens, is to prevent needy children and families from facing a Christmas empty of joy and filled with sadness.

In the meantime appeals for aid were reaching officials. Here is a letter typical of several which have been received:

"Dear Mr. Goodfellow:

If you have enough to spare, I would like for you to help me this year. I won't ask for myself but the children are looking for Santa Claus and I don't know where it is coming from. My husband has been sick and only had work for a few days this month. We will manage somehow for clothes or keep the children by the fire—but they do so much look for Santa.

"I can do without anything myself—but it would hurt the children to know there is no Santa Claus."

Reports from the various committees will be tabulated daily. General Director Roy Anderson urges all committees to complete their assignments this week—as next week will be required in purchasing, wrapping and distribution.

A special committee is checking each appeal for aid—in order that there will be no duplication of gifts.

H. V. McGinnis, manager of the New theater, announced a special benefit show be held at 10 a. m. Saturday for the Christmas fund.

A boy or girl will be required for admission. This will be turned over to the distribution committee.

The tabulation at noon:

Previously reported $ 67.50
Union Thanksgiving Service 29.25
Hope Star 25.00
Union Campers, & Workers' home company 5.00

H. O. Kyler 1.00
Lyle Moore 1.00
E. S. Franklin 1.00
Fred Hunt 1.00
S. Callcott 1.00
Dale Hunt 1.00
Hugh Smith 1.00
Mrs. Hugh Smith 1.00
Roy Anderson 1.00
Mory Sue Anderson 1.00
Fidelity Shop 5.00
J. E. Allen 1.00
James H. Pilkinton 1.00
Mrs. Luther Garner 1.00
Joe B. Greene 1.00
Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Comp 1.00
Arthur Taylor 1.00
Parson & Larson 1.00
L. A. Keith 1.00
Felix Smelebon 1.00
Jim Reed 1.00
L. W. G. Allison 1.00
H. B. Hart 1.00
P. H. Jones 1.00
Ben Ward 1.00
Eaton Electric Co. 1.00
Gus Hayes 1.00
Henry Hayes 1.00
Wood & Son 5.00
Guy Card 1.00
F. L. Lathan 1.00
W. E. White 6 1.00
John S. Gibson 1.00
C. C. Crider 1.00
Frank Ward .50
Oscar Greenberg .50
Elmer Murph .25
Cash .25

Total $170.45

Senator Eligible for Commission

Attorney General Rules in Favor of J. Paul Ward, Batesville

LITTLE ROCK — (AP) — Attorney General Jack Holt held Wednesday that a state senator elected to a four-year term at the November, 1931, general election was eligible for appointment or election to another state office at any time after the election of his successor at the 1938 election.

The opinion upheld the right of J. Paul Ward, of Batesville, to receive salary as a member of the State Industrial Board from the time of his appointment by Governor Bailey December 1.

His coy-tills, a wild shrub of Mexico and the southwest, causes permanent paralysis when eaten by livestock.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — December cotton opened Wednesday at 8.33 and closed at 8.50 bid, 8.51 asked. Spot cotton closed already eight points up, middling 8.43.

CRACKIN' CLACKERS

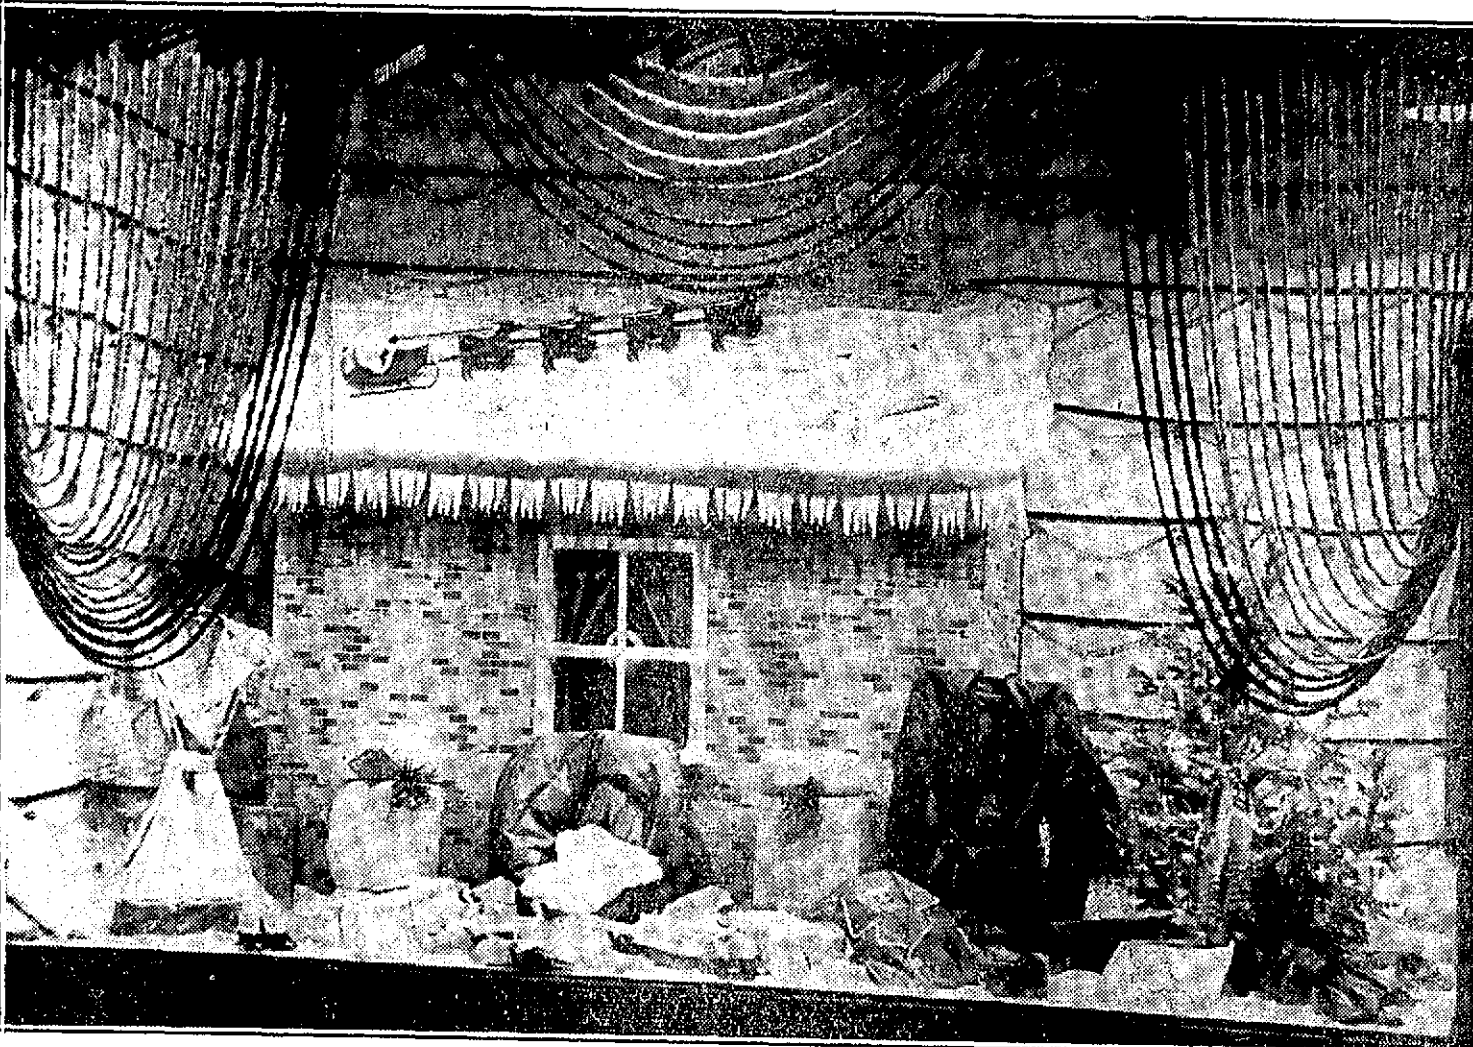

Some of the following statements are true. Some are false. Which are which?

1. Microphones were first used with radios.
2. Rainbows sometimes appear as complete circles.
3. Cats sharpen their claws on trees.
4. English walnuts are sometimes called Persian nuts.
5. Fright may actually raise the hair.

Answers on Page Two

Christmas Window Contest Winners

—Photos by Hope Star

FIRST PRIZE—$15—The Gen. W. Robison Co. store-window.

SECOND PRIZE—$5—Live models in the J. C. Penney Co. window: Left to right, Misses Dale Russell, Virginia Montgomery, Hester Williams, and Helen Bowden.

HONORABLE MENTION, Tied for Third Place—LEFT: Duggan's window; RIGHT: Ladies Specialty Shop Window.

Threat Upon Tunis to Bring British to Aid of French

Mussolini Bluntly Warned by Chamberlain in House of Commons

NEW GERMAN TIFF

Berlin's Diplomatic Staff Resents Chamberlain's Hard Rap

By the Associated Press

Any Italian aggression toward French Tunisia will be a "matter of grave concern" to Great Britain, Prime Minister Chamberlain warned Wednesday in the House of Commons, where anger mounted over a Nazi rebuff to the prime minister.

Chamberlain's blunt notice came in response to a question in parliament inspired by recent Italian clamor for Tunis and other French possessions.

Schacht Arrives

In the midst of ruffled Anglo-British feelings, Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank, arrived on an unofficial visit, reportedly to discuss financing Jewish emigration.

The prime minister's rebuke of the German press Tuesday night, and the consequent absence of all German representatives from the dinner where he spoke, raised speculation as to whether a barrier had arisen against any full peace understanding between the two powers.

A German foreign office spokesman said, "We are frankly astonished," and then added that the incident should be considered one of the "ups and downs of politics . . . not to be taken too seriously."

Frenchmen declared that Chamberlain's statement that Anglo-French relations "pass beyond mere legal obligations" gave added strength to Premier Daladier's hand, particularly in the face of Italian clamor for French territory.

Italy Hopeful

In Rome, stress was laid on Chamberlain's assertion that he would continue appeasement. This was interpreted to mean that Italy would get something when Chamberlain confers with Il Duce next month.

At the same time Italy announced an increase of $129,770,000 in appropriations for armed forces for the 1939-40 fiscal year.

Berlin diplomatic sources expressed the belief that the annexation of Memel, under normal Lithuanian control, would be a matter of weeks now that the Memel Nazis have tightened the control on their legislature.

Denmark arrested four Danish Nazis then released them after investigation of a suspected plot to kidnap Socialist Premier T. H. Stauning.

Walter L. Goodwin Is Named El Dorado Mayor

EL DORADO, Ark. — (AP) — Walter L. Goodwin was elected mayor of El Dorado Tuesday, polling 71 more votes than the combined totals of his two opponents. He received 1045 votes, Frank Lawton 714, and Alderman Lew Stephan 281.

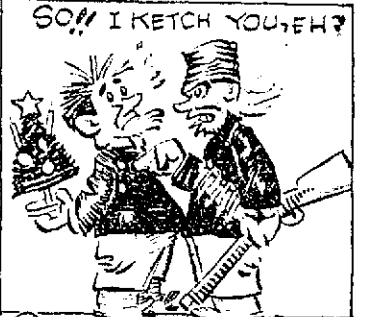

Goodwin served as mayor here from 1931 to 1935.

E. F. Garrison was elected city treasurer, defeating the incumbent, Mrs. Alta W. Hammond, 1204 to 802.

A Thought

If thou suffer injustice, console thyself; the true unhappiness is in doing it.—Democritus.

9 Shopping Days Till Christmas

LOOKING BACK TO CHRISTMAS NINE YEARS AGO—Admiral Byrd widely acclaimed for hop to South Pole. Dancer Harold Kreutzberg electrifying lovers of terpsichore. . . . Group of Catholics, Jews, Protestants met at Harvard to war on religious intolerance. . . . Hollywood "pepping up" Shakespeare, with "Petrouchka" Fairbanks and "Katherine" Peckford in "The Taming of the Shrew." . . . Russia was banning Christmas observance

Hope Star

Star of Hope, 1899; Press, 1927. Consolidated January 18, 1929

O Justice, Deliver Thy Herald From False Report!

Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc.
C. E. Palmer & Alex. H. Washburn, at The Star building, 212-214 South Walnut street, Hope, Ark.

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

(AP) — Means Associated Press.
(NSA) — Means Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week 15c; per month $5c; one year $50. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $5.50.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charge will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions, or memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility or the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

European and American Dictators Are Different

One thing that has been bothering some Americans in connection with this proposed New World co-operation in defense of democracy is the perfectly obvious fact that the democracy of so many Latin-American nations is far from being pure and undefiled.

The conference in Peru may be productive of great things. Yet there is no use ignoring the fact that the nations there represented only a few can be classed as genuine democracies, as the others are untroubled north of the Rio Grande. If a united front against the dictators is formed, there will be plenty of dictators in it.

Yet there is no need for anyone to be dismayed by this fact. For if dictatorship in itself is an old story in this hemisphere, the particular kind of dictatorship now looming large on the European horizon is something new. A moment's comparison will make the distinction clear.

As a general thing, the "banana republic" dictatorship is a highly individualized show. Only rarely is it based on any ideology or theory more elaborate than a simple desire for power. It may be exceedingly repressive—some of the Latin dictators had nothing to learn from the Nazis about the technique of silencing dissidents—but by its very nature it is ephemeral, and it does not force the ideals, the mental process and the intellectual outlook of its people into a rigid mold. It is a way of government but not a way of life. It does not try to remake society according to a fixed pattern.

All of which is just the reverse of the European-model dictatorship which is to be one of the big concerns of the Lima conference.

For the frightening thing about such a thing as Nazism is that while it vests all the power of government in one man, it goes far beyond the old-time idea of simple autocracy, and sets up an ideal to which all men are forced to conform. It is not enough that the citizen simply refrain from criticizing the dictator; he must think as the dictator wants him to think, he is permitted to have only such ideas as suit the dictator, the smallest details of his private life are regulated for him.

So that it is not merely political freedom which dies under this system. The fundamental right of the human being to think his own thoughts and worship according to the dictates of his own conscience, to pick his friends, to train his children, and to keep himself aware of what is going on in the world—this broad right, which is fundamental to anything that can pass under the name of civilization, ceases to exist.

That is why there is nothing in the least out of the way in the spectacle of various Latin-American dictators sitting down to discuss ways of checking the spread of European totalitarianism.

Free democracy society can survive these impromptu one-man dictatorships. It cannot survive a spread of the European dictatorship ideal. If we are to understand the significance of the Lima conference, we must be clear about difference between the two.

The Family Doctor

T. M. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

New Methods of Treating Pneumonia Saves Thousands of Lives

The pneumonia season is before us. Today physicians confront the disease with far more confidence than ever before in the history of medicine. The attack on pneumonia was once limited to rest in bed, support of the heart, and the use of a few remedies for securing rest. Today the attack is scientific and thousands of lives are saved by new methods.

In the old days it was said that nursing was the most important part of care in pneumonia. Today the remedies used include oxygen, special serums which have been developed for various forms of pneumonia germs, and chemical remedies which in some instances are specific for certain forms of the pneumonia germ.

The number of types of pneumonia include at least 24 due to different forms of the pneumonia germ. One out of every four people with pneumonia dies of the disease. It is high on the list of the causes of death. When pneumonia develops, the chief symptoms include fever, rapid breathing, pain in the chest, and the expectoration of material which is tinged with blood. Usually the person who has pneumonia has been exhausted from overwork and exposure or is perhaps recovering from some illness which tends to place strain on the body. The usual illness to precede pneumonia are the common cold, influenza, measles, bronchitis or some similar condition.

Any of the symptoms or combinations of these symptoms that develop do not necessarily mean pneumonia. The doctor determines the presence of pneumonia by an examination of the lungs in order to find out whether there are any signs of consolidation resulting from the pouring in of material into the spaces of the lung. A typical condition in pneumonia. One of the most scientific and modern procedures is examination of the sputum in order to determine whether or not pneumonia germs are present and if they are present, the type of germ that is responsible. After the type of the germ is recognized, it becomes possible for the doctor to give a specific serum which is directed against that type. Serums are not yet available for every type and are not equally efficient in all of them. In New York state serum is furnished to physicians by the Health Department for types 1, 2 and 5 in cases in which the patient is unable to provide himself with the necessary serum.

The Sahara desert, at its greatest extent, is 3,200 miles long and 1,400 miles wide.

Honeymoon Goes On—But With Armed Guard

JERUSALEM.—(AP)—"Please don't shoot—we're just married," was the appeal chalked on the back of a car in which Charles Tunstall Evans, a senior British official, left with his bride, Kathleen Armstrong, on their honeymoon in troubled Palestine. An armored car escorted the motor-car.

Bricks On His Budget

BROWNSVILLE, Texas.—(AP)—Faced with a $2,000 deficit in his year's budget, the Rev. Ray V. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist church, closed the door of the church with 400 bricks and placed a price tag of $5 on each of them. The congregation and friends of the church are now busy buying and moving the bricks.

Hitler Fails Newsies As Alibi in Court

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Hitler failed as an alibi for two Washington newsies brought into court on charges of crying "extra" while selling a regular edition. The Newsies told Police Court Judge Newman they weren't calling "Extra!" That what they were shouting was "Hitler!" "They don't sound alike to me," said the judge. "Five dollars."

Gila Monster Pays Visit

ELGIN, Ill.—(AP)—Jerome Hannon found a gila monster paddling around in the basement of his new home here. The poisonous reptile is a native of arid regions of Southwestern United States. So Hannon guesses it escaped from a medicine show that visited Elgin a few days before.

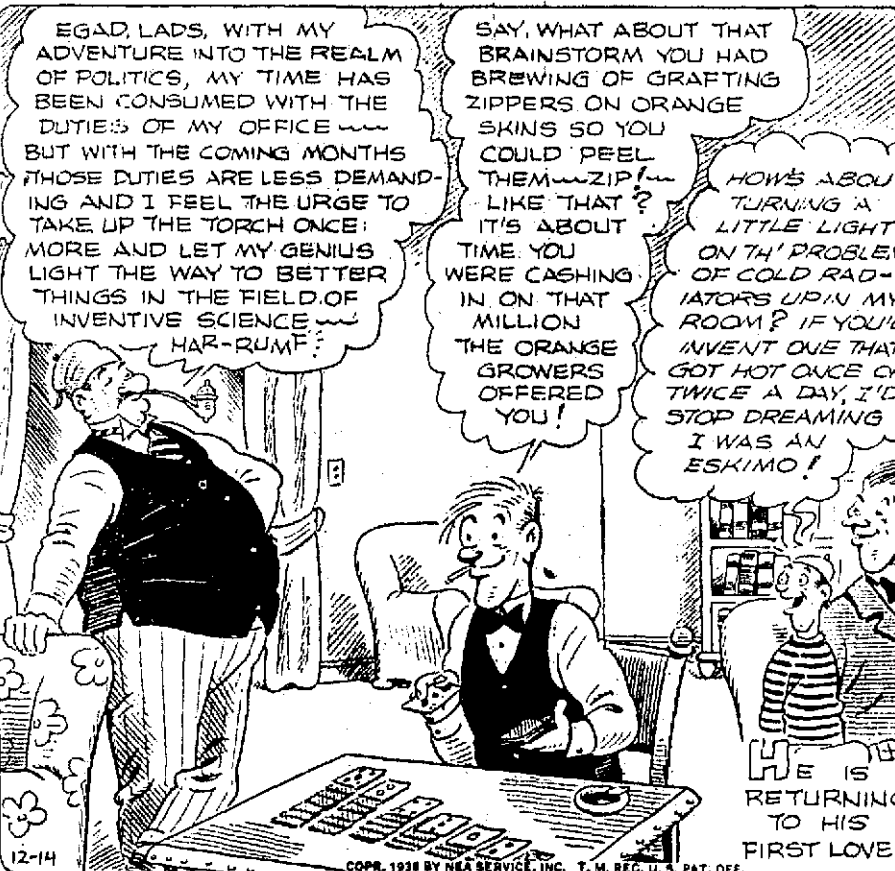

PLEASE

The way Hope Star Want Ads get results will please you. What's more, you'll get them more cheaply than any other way. And that will please you some more! You can't beat 'em—whether you want to Buy, Trade, Rent, Sell.

Send Your Classified Ad by Mail or Bring to Hope Star

OUR BOARDING HOUSE ... with ... MAJOR HOOPLE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. WILLIAMS

Grrrrrr!

By EDGAR MARTIN

Wanted

WANTED—Ex-Service men to be at Fair Ground night of December 15 for feed. 10-3tp

WARNING—For the protection of our cattle on the Munn farm, five and one-half miles southeast of Emmet, this is a warning that no hunting will be allowed on this property. T. A. Glanton, Jr. 14-3tp

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—6 room furnished house, 406 So. Spruce. Phone 38F11. Mrs. J. E. Schooley. 618 c

FOR SALE—Boys full sized Latonia bicycle with light and large basket. Mrs. Ralph Routon. 12-3tp

FOR SALE—80 acres improved, on highway, three miles out. Ten dollars, acre. C. B. Tyler. 12-3tp

FOR SALE—Two lots, one block from pavement, real bargain. J. L. Powell, East Second Street. 12-3tp

CLASSIFIED

COLUMNS OF OPPORTUNITIES

"The More You Tell the Quicker You Sell"

You Can Talk to Only One Man
Want Ads Talk to Thousands
SELL-RENT BUY OR SWAP

All Want Ads cash in advance Not taken over the Phone
One time—2c word, minimum 30c Three times—3 1/2c word, minimum 50c
Six times—6c word, minimum 90c One month—18c word, minimum $2.70
Rates are for continuous insertions only.

Notice

NOTICE—Specials. Guaranteed Oil Permanents $1.50 and up; Shampoo, Set and Dry 50c; Lash and Brow Dye 40c. White Way Beauty Shop, 113 Front Street. IM-Dec-30c

Services Offered

SPECIALS—Permanents $1.50 up, Shampoo set, Manicure $5c; Shampoo set, Eyebrow-lash dye $1.00. Vanity Beauty Shop. Phone 39, 117 Front Street. 21-25-c

For Sale

FOR SALE—1 Jersey Milch cow and 1 Jersey & Guernsey Milch cow, both giving milk now. Can be seen at 504 N. Elm street. 14-4tp

FOR SALE—Good, heavy car corn. Mrs. Clyde Hill. Phone 307-W. 14-1tp

FOR SALE—Holiday Specials—Shampoo Set and Dry 35c; Oil Shampoo and Set Dry 45c; Manicure 35c; Eye Brow, Lash Dye and Arch 50c; Cocktail Facial 50. Stuart's Beauty Salon, Phone 752. Jan 7 Pd.

Just received large assortment Fir Christmas trees. Make your choice early right size and shape. MONTS SEED STORE. 1-12c

FOR SALE—White Cotton Mattresses Investigate our work and material first. Hempstead Mattress Shop. Call Paul Cobb 6581. 1-28c

FOR SALE—Fat Turkeys for Christmas. Inspection of flock invited. Place orders now. Lee H. Garland, Phone 9-F-3. 7-12tpd

120 acre improved on highway, light line, near town. $6.65 per acre, 15 years to pay. C. B. Tyler. 13-3tp

FOR SALE—Steinway Grand, slightly used. Big Saving. Home size, almost perfect condition. Beasley's, Texarkana. 13-to-24

Today's Answers to CRANIUM CRACKERS

Questions on Page One
1. False. Microphones were first used on telephones.
2. False. Rainbows do not appear as complete circles.
3. False. Cats do not sharpen their claws on trees, but may tear off loose claws in that manner.
4. True. English walnuts are sometimes called Persian nuts.
5. True. Fright may actually raise the hair.

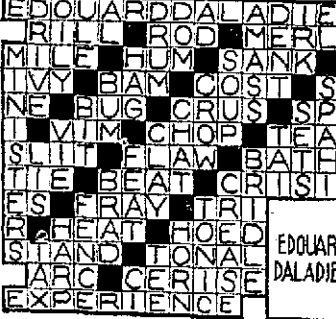

Mable at 110 She'll Start Flying BOURNEMOUTH, Eng.—(AP)—Mrs. Julie Hames at the age of 100 loves everything on wheels. She has done so since her pram days. At the age of 62 she learned to ride a bike, and rode it until she was 80. At 84 she rode on the "rumbly seat" of a motor-bicycle "because," she explained, "I saw other girls doing it." At 90 she learned to drive a car.

SWEET SINGER

HORIZONTAL

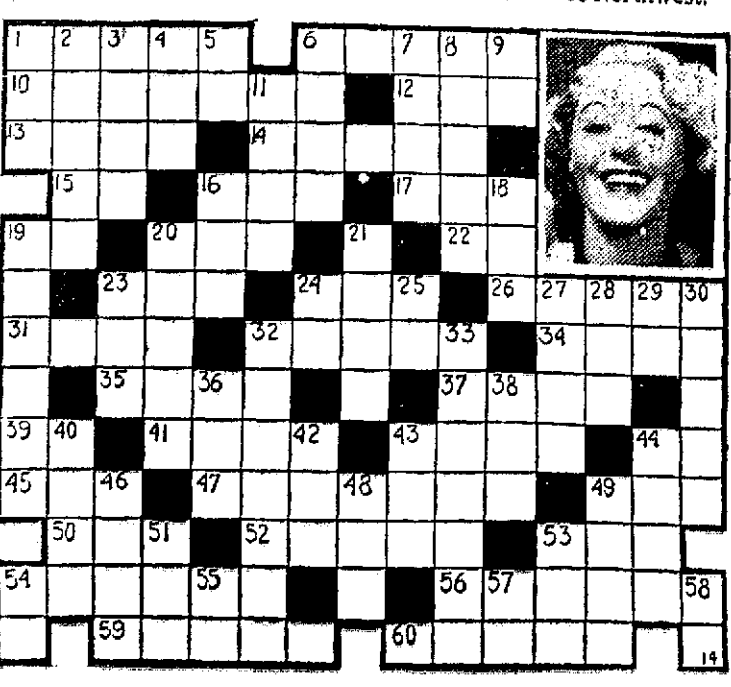

1. 6 Pictured soprano.
10. Edible.
12. Animals' lair.
13. Arabian commander.
14. Genus of slugs.
15. Electrical unit.
16. Exclamation.
17. To rot flax.
19. To live.
20. Turf.
22. Grief.
23. Sailor.
24. Wages.
26. Runt.
31. Grand-parental.
32. Packer.
34. Money.
35. Taunt.
37. Series of musical events.
39. Transposed.
41. Flat plate.
42. Disfigurement.
43. Pair.
44. To bark.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

VERTICAL

1. Driver's command.
2. Bast fiber.
3. Monkhood (plant).
4. Tram.
5. Erbium.
6. Nothing more than.
7. Smell.
8. To renovate.
9. Type measure.
11. Deposited.
16. Watch pocket.
18. Male cat.
19. She has — of voice and face.
20. Compact.
21. Enraptured.
22. Joke.
23. Italian river.
25. You.
27. Acidity.
28. Gasoline.
29. Subsists.
30. She's an actress of —.
32. Sends again.
33. Notoriety.
36. Twice.
38. Dance step.
40. Polynesian chestnut.
42. Blood money.
43. Monkey.
44. Timber.
46. Ache.
48. To annoy.
49. Slash.
51. Antelope.
53. dined.
54. To proceed.
55. Noun.
56. termination.
57. Upon.
58. Northwest.

WASH TUBBS

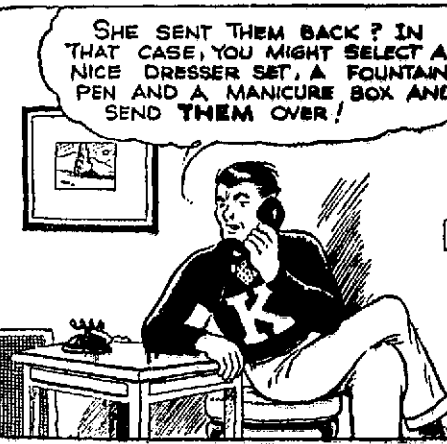

No Laughing Matter

By ROY CRANE

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

Continuous Performance

By MERRILL BLOSSER

MYRA NORTH, SPECIAL NURSE

"Bingo" Again

By Ray Thompson and Charles Coll

Society

MRS. SID HENRY TELEPHONE 321

A Prayer for Holidays

Those who watch from wistful windows while the world keeps holiday, Lord! send down thy love to fold them; take the loneliness away. There are many, ah, so many for whom the dawn-light falls on barren fields of bitterness, and mocking empty walls. Some are weary with false hopes,

DOUBLE FEATURE

RIALTO
Wed. & Thur.
"GIRLS ON PROBATION"
—and—
"LADY OBJECTS"

SAENGER
Thur. Fri.
WED. ONLY
TOMMY KELLY
in
"PECK'S BAD BOY WITH THE CIRCUS"

The Marx Bros.
in
"Room Service"

Some are bound by crippled feet, some are mother-hearted, yearning for lost foot-falls down the street; some are sick for dreams long vanished, some for questings never known; Some have lost a comrade's shoulder and must take the road alone. Little, watchings, wistful windows, white farms ringed with northern fire, Pillared portion and lattice where the jasmind dusk-winds stir; Sun-baked cabin flanked with sage-brush, city marble terraced white, Or a steamer's port-holes streaming gold against a starless night. Bless the patience and the waiting with the trend of humming feet, Pour the wretched and weary, wine of course, golden-sweet; Those who watch from wistful windows, look down on them we pray; Let thy love and comfort fold them; and their hearts keep holiday. —Selected.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ward of Putnam announce the marriage of their daughter Irene to Herman J. Putman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Putman of Hope. The wedding was solemnized on December 1, at Lewisville, Dec. 1st, with the Rev. G. W. Rister officiating. They were attended by Travis Ward, brother of the bride and Miss Mabel Bearden. After January 1, Mr. and Mrs. Ward will make their home in Hope, where Mr. Ward is connected with the Western Auto Association.

Mrs. W. P. Singleton, Miss Martha Ann Singleton and Robert Singleton were Wednesday guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Blakely in Little Rock. The Oglesby P. O. A. met on Tuesday afternoon at the Oglesby school for its December meeting, with the president, Mrs. H. O. Kyler presiding and the fifth grade pupils presenting a Christmas program. The program consisted of a number of Christmas carols, sung by the pupils, accompanied by Miss Pansy Wimberly at the piano, the scene of the Nativity, with different pupils taking part. The play was under the direction of Miss Mabel Ethridge, and the children were well trained, both in the chorus and speaking parts, both the manger scene was unusually beautiful. Following the program, Miss Beryl Henry, city school superintendent addressed the mothers and friends, giving a report from the City council and asked the assistance of the mothers in

NEW THEATRE

LAST TIMES WEDNESDAY
No. 1—Jane Withers
—in—
"CHECKERS"
No. 2 "Flight to Fame"

THURSDAY & FRIDAY
2 FOR THE PRICE OF 1
Clip This Ad—Good For One Free Admission with one Paid 20c Ticket.

Starring
RICHARD DIX
CHESTER MORRIS
JOAN FONTAINE
HARRY MCGARRY
PAUL GILFOYLE
K.C. RADIO PICTURE
Also—"Latin Rhythm" and Act

COMING NEXT SUNDAY
In Person (Etc.)
"THE SUNSHINE BOYS"
Your Favorite KWKK Program

warning the bicycle riders to be more careful in going to and from school. A very pleasing addition to the program was a short concert under the direction of Thos. Cannon by the Junior band under the direction of G. Thomas Cannon closing with numbers by the woodwind performers, making a most pleasing program. In the count of mothers present, Miss Wimberly's room was awarded the dollar. Different rooms were visited following adjournment, and the Christmas decorations were very inspiring, and to those of you who are slow in getting the Christmas spirit, we recommend a program by the children, and a visit to our schools and catch the spirit of those for whom Christmas means so firstmush—the little child.

Tuesday evening the high school band presented the first concert of the season at the city hall auditorium under the direction of G. Thomas Cannon and student director, J. T. Luck. A large and appreciative audience greeted the band and the numbers were splendid, especially the numbers by student director, J. T. Luck, who has by outstanding work won the position of student director. The Christmas Carols were beautifully sung and added to the program, and we are just wondering if we realize just what a splendid organization the Hope High School Band has gotten to be, and what it means to the community.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Herndon, Jr., announce the arrival of a little daughter, Jennie Lou, Monday, December 12 at Josephine hospital.

The Clara Lowthorp chapter 8, of C. will meet Thursday evening at 7:15 to the home of Miss Roslyn Hall South Main street for its Christmas party.

Mrs. Ralph Routon announces her Christmas recitals for two afternoons next week at her residence 120, North Pine street. On Monday at 3, the program will be given by her high school class, and on Tuesday afternoon at 3 the grade school students will be presented.

The Melrose Home Demonstration club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Irwin Urry. Miss Bullington gave a rug demonstration and made further plans for the council meeting at Melrose church, Thursday, December 15. Mrs. Joe Laseter gave a very inspiring devotional on the Christmas story, using as scripture reference, the 21st verse of the 1st chapter of Matthew closing with a poem by E. A. Guest. Mrs. Urry and Mrs. Laseter sang "Joy to the World." The business period followed. Thirteen members and four children were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hale Griffith of Seattle, Washington have been guests of Mrs. Griffith's aunts, Mrs. W. W. Johnson and Mrs. Ada Swicegood for the past few days, returning home from a very delightful trip which took them to Chicago via airplane, to Lansing, Michigan for the purchase of a new car, to New York City, interesting points down the Atlantic coast to Miami, Fla., returning via the Gulf coast and New Orleans, they will make their trip home via the Southern route through California and Oregon. Mrs. Griffith will be remembered as Miss Mary Margaret Andrews formerly of this city.

The Friday Music club Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. R. M. LaCone, North Hervey street, at 7:30 Friday evening. Each member will bring a gift not over 25c in price.

Navy Yards Ordered to Enroll New Men

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Navy yards were ordered Tuesday to enroll the largest possible number of apprentices in their training schools. The navy department said there is a shortage in some of the highly specialized shipbuilding trades. It is trying to remedy this in order to carry out the naval expansion program.

Relieve Suspense With Suspenders

Forestalling threat of Washington University varsity ball committee to hand suspenders to any girl appearing in a strapless evening gown, Rae Samuel came to the dance in Seattle already equipped.

The Library

Read the following interesting books from the shelves of the city library: "The Tenth Muse," by E. Powell. "The Great Meadow," by Elizabeth Roberts. "The Sound of Running Feet," by Josephine Lawrence. "Border Feud," by Charles Snow. "Silver Spurs," by Joseph Montague. "The Code of the West," by Zane Grey.

Today's Fashion Hint

This Design Solves Frock Problem of the Littlest Miss

By CAROL DAY
This little dress is so perfectly designed to make a one-to-six tot look her sweetest, that you can use it for practically all the ne w frocks she needs. Just as simple as it can be, with a round collar and turn-back cuffs, this design, Pattern 8358, has a cluster of tiny tufts in the front to give dainty fullness to the brief remainder of it. For play or kindergarten, make this dress of percale, gingham or linen in everyday, small-figured prints. For parties, dinner dates at Grandma's and other dress-up occasions, make it of pastel dimity, lawn, organdy or dotted Swiss. It's easy as a doll-frock to make. This little design includes panties, of course. There's still time to make a dress like this before Christmas. Pattern 8358 is designed for sizes 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 years. Size 2 requires 1 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for dress; 3/4 yard for panties; 1 1/4 yards of braid or lace for collar and cuffs. The new Fall and Winter Pattern Book, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion, is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Fall and Winter Pattern Book—25 cents. Pattern or book alone—15 cents. For a Pattern of this attractive model send 15c in coin, your name, address, style number and size to Hope Star Today's Pattern Bureau, 211 W. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill.

Play to Be Given for Spring Hill

Pre-Christmas Event to Be Held There on Thursday Night

Under the direction of Miss Adell Williams and Miss Lily Johnson, the first concert and play of its type ever to be presented at Spring Hill will be given Thursday night, December 15, at 7:30 o'clock in the High School auditorium to raise funds for the Athletic Association. The first feature is the first three grades' play entitled "Mother Goose's Goslings." Following the play an amateur hour will be awarded for the first and second best contestants. The judges will determine the winners.

Episcopal Bishop Is Visitor in Hope

To Meet Vestry Wednesday Night, to Preach on Thursday

The Right Reverend R. Bland Mitchell, Episcopal bishop of Arkansas, will arrive in Hope Wednesday afternoon for a visit to St. Mark's Parish here. The bishop will be accompanied by the Rev. C. P. Lewis, of Birmingham, Ala.

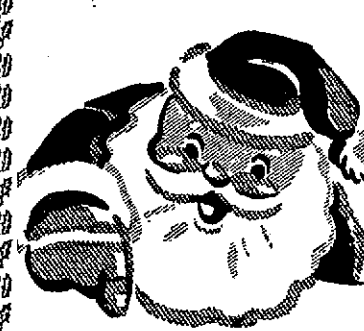

At 8 o'clock Wednesday night the bishop will meet with the vestry and members of St. Mark's parish at Hotel Barlow. Thursday morning at 7:30 o'clock the bishop assisted by Mr. Lewis will celebrate Holy Communion at the church. This will be the second visit to the parish by Bishop Mitchell since his consecration as bishop of Arkansas last October.

Mrs. Goldstein Files Appeal in High Court

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Notice of appeal to the eighth circuit court of appeals was filed in federal district court Tuesday by Mrs. Grace Goldstein of Hot Springs, convicted and sentenced to five years in prison last week on a Mann act charge.

The charge was based on the allegation that Mrs. Goldstein, also under a two year sentence for conspiracy to harbor outlaw Alvin Karpis, transported a niece from Texas to Hot Springs for immoral purposes in 1935. Mrs. Goldstein did not appeal from the Karpis conspiracy sentence. The appeal notice said the trial court erred in admitting certain evidence over defense objections, and in excluding certain defense evidence and in making certain instructions to the jury.

Santa Says

"Before You Buy" Christmas Gifts for HER

Come in and see the lovely SUEDE-TEX and CHENILLE

ROBES and Dormitory Pajamas

In Six Styles and Colors $4.90 and $5.95

Other Attractive Gifts in Satin Lingerie, Gloves, Bags and Costume Jewelry.

At Hope's Latest

Fashion Shop

108 South Main

Rev. W. T. McMullen to Speak Wednesday

The Rev. W. T. McMullen, internationally known evangelist, will speak at the Hope Gospel Tabernacle Wednesday night, at 7:30. With the evangelist is his wife and two daughters who are musicians and will take part in the service. They travel in one of the most modern, complete house cars obtainable and so are at home wherever they stop. They are enroute to California. The Rev. Mr. McMullen has conducted revival campaigns in some of the largest churches in the country and for a number of years was pastor of a large church in Oklahoma. The McMullen party will be in Hope for only one service and everyone who reads this has an invitation to attend the meeting and hear this outstanding speaker.

Fish Fry, Stew to Be Held Thursday

Legion Officials Prepare for Large Crowd at Fair Park

The annual American Legion fish fry and mulligan stew will be held at 7:15 o'clock Thursday night at Fair Park. All ex-service men and their wives are invited.

There will be several out-of-town legionnaires present. Arrangements have been made for a large crowd. Cecil Weaver, post commander, urges every ex-service man to be present.

Rites Wednesday for Mrs. Johnson

Funeral Service Held at 2:30 o'clock From M. E. Church

Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in First Methodist church for Mrs. Mollie Barton Johnson, widow of the late A. L. Johnson of Hope. Mrs. Johnson died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lon L. Campbell, at Asheville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and their daughter and Dr. Louis Barton of Muskogee, Okla., accompanied Mrs. Johnson's body home here. Mrs. Johnson had been a member of First Methodist church for more than 60 years, and was a charter member of the Woman's Missionary Society.

The service was conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth L. Spore, and the immediate past pastor, the Rev. Fred R. Harrison, now presiding elder of the Arkadelphia district. Pall bearers were: Tom Garland and Mack Garland, of Emmet, and Rob Jones, Edwin Ward, John P. Vesey and Albert Graves, of Hope.

Pickaback Flyer Cited

LONDON.—(AP)—Captain D. C. Bennett, who flew the "Pickaback" plane Mercury across the Atlantic in 22 hours 31 minutes, has been awarded the Johnston Memorial Trophy for the year's best air navigation feat.

Vacuum Draws 'Hoppers' REGINA, Sask.—(AP)—A new device to combat invading hordes of grasshoppers was demonstrated to Saskatchewan farmers by Joseph Dillman and Frank Hoffman of Yakima, Wash. It sucks up the insects from the ground and destroys them.

The oldest known printed book, discovered in China, bears the date, May 11, 868.

When COLDS THREATEN—

Used at first sneeze, this specialized medication for the nose and upper throat—helps prevent many colds.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

FHA 5% Loans New and existing property. Real Estate Mort. Loan Service. Pink Taylor, Agent; 309 First National Bank Building. Phone 686.

Let us make your Gifts more attractive with our special wrapping Service. Ladies Specialty Shop

'BELL RINGING' CHRISTMAS GIFTS at DUGGAR'S

Gorgeous gifts need not cost a "fortune." Duggars have scoured the markets of the world to make this Christmas your nicest, at minimum prices! Not only that, but we present here a shopping list to further help you, with spaces for names and sizes, so you will have a Christmas shopping list complete! Use this service—just clip this advertisement, fill in names and sizes—the price is listed, and you'll even know how much you'll spend.

CHENILLE ROBE for size..... Wrap around or fitted styles, with zipper, with bias cut back that swings as you walk. You'll love their warm and snuggy fit. In royal blue, bittersweet, white, aqua, and powder blue. Sizes 12 to 20 in two groups—$3.95 and $5.95.

PAJAMAS for size..... Lace trimmed, or tailored Tom Girls in satins and crepes that are positively swell. Tea rose, or blue, in sizes 15, 16, and 17, priced $1.95 and $2.95.

NIGHTIES for size..... The most beautiful assortment you've ever seen for the money—anywhere! Prints, in big floral designs, or crepes and satins, in tailored or lace trimmed types—cocktail bottoms, with lots of lace. Tea rose, blue, and prints in light and dark shades, sizes 15, 16, and 17, priced at $1.95 and $2.95.

PAJAMAS for size..... Printed Tom Girls, and solid color broadcloth pajamas that make nice gifts. Sizes 14 to 17 plain at $1.00 and Tom Girl prints at $1.95.

LITTLE GIRL PAJAMAS for size..... Little Miss Dixie silk pajamas, tailored and lace trimmed types, in sizes 8 to 16, blue and tearose, specially priced 98c.

NIGHTIES for size..... Silks, in prints or solid colors of tearose, or blue, sizes 16 and 17, priced at $1.00.

SLIPS for size..... Lovely quality slips, in crepe, or satin, lace trimmed, or tailored, in junior and regular sizes. A gift that is always appreciated! Priced at $1.00 and $1.95.

PURSES for Any size. Great variety of types to choose from, in popular this season shades of wine, brown, tan, and black. Priced at $1.00. Raymore bags at $1.95.

HOSE for size..... Lovely, sheer, two thread Admiration hose—delight the hearts of every girl—every wanted new color—chambray, praline beige, mist beige, fuchsia, and velour (for wines) pair, $1.00, three pair in box for $2.95.

HOSE for size..... High twist three thread Admiration hose, in the above colors, at $1.00 the pair, or three in a box for $2.95. Another group Admiration three thread ringless hose in all new colors, the pair, 79c, three pair in a box for only $2.25.

HOUSE SHOES for size..... Fine quality kid leather dorse type, as well as satins in black, wine, and blue, priced at $1.95.

HOUSE SHOES for size..... Clever wedge heel toless, in blue printed taffeta, sizes 3 to 7 in wide widths, priced at $1.49.

HOUSE SHOES for size..... Hi-gore front in red or black crepe, with contrasting bow decoration, and medium leather tipped heel, soft leather sole. Priced 88c.

Do your Christmas shopping now, and we'll both be happy. Selections are better, size runs more complete, and clerks will have more time to assist you.

DUGGAR'S

Ladies and Childrens Ready-to-Wear Ladies and Misses Shoes

Rollins Hosiery

"THEY DO THINGS FOR YOUR LESS"

HITT'S BROWN SHOE STORE

SALE WINTER COATS

Sport Coats for All Around Day-time Wear. $10.95

LADIES Specialty Shop

See Our Gift Line SHEAFFER PENS YARDLEY TOILET SETS CARA NOME GIFT SETS BILFOLDS—BIBLES LEATHER GOODS MONOGRAMMED STATIONERY GALES CANDY MEN'S TOILET SETS JOHN S. GIBSON DRUG CO.

Pre-Christmas Sale

GIFT Lingerie

$1.98 $2.98

HAND MADE NIGHT ROBES Barbizon Princess SLIPS Vanity Fair Undies

Made in Silk Crepes, Satin, and Glove Silk. Lace trimmed and tailored.

So exquisit and fine that she will be thrilled at first sight. Our Assortments are complete and you will find these garments nowhere else in HOPE.

USE OUR DISTINCTIVE WRAPPING SERVICE.

Ladies Specialty Shop

Fraud Charged in 600-Million Sale to U. S. Investors

Fidelity Investment Ass'n Cited by U. S. Securities Commission

HUGE DRUG PROBE

Government Also Begins McKesson & Robbins Co. Investigation

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Securities Commission announced Wednesday it had filed a bill of complaint charging the Fidelity Investment Association, a company which it said had sold 600 million dollars in securities to the public, with fraudulent practices.

The complaint, which was filed in federal district court for the eastern district of Michigan, asked that the company be enjoined from selling securities in violation of federal and state laws.

McKesson & Robbins Probe

NEW YORK—(P)—The federal government issued 50 subpoenas Wednesday for Wall Street operators, prominent brokers, and officials of McKesson & Robbins, Inc., in its investigation of a reported shortage of 18 million dollars in the giant firm's listed assets.

At the same time Julian F. Thompson, treasurer and a director of the firm, began telling publicly for the first time the story of how he became suspicious that something was financially wrong with the crude drugs department where, the alleged shortage occurred.

Film to Be Shown at Presbyterian Church

A Young Peoples rally will be held Wednesday night at the First Presbyterian church at 6 o'clock, at which time a plate lunch will be served and movies shown of Fennell and an address made by Jap Patterson, state-wide director of religious education.

All members of the group sponsored by Mrs. Allison are expected to be present, also all the older young people of the church.

At 8 o'clock, Mr. Patterson will meet with all workers in the children's division of the church school and will address them and show a reel of film of model or laboratory classes in action.

Parents and others interested in the work of the three departments of the children's division, (beginners, primaries and juniors) are also invited to see their film.

Pensioners Will Get Christmas Allotments

LITTLE ROCK—(P)—Arkansas' Confederate pensioners will get their "Christmas checks" this week-end.

State Auditor Oscar Humphrey said he would mail out the pensions, ranging from $8.50 to $25 each, on Thursday. Approximately $25,000 will be disbursed.

Small fish are burned as candles by Alaskan miners.

FAMILY GIFTS

Dining Room Suites
Radios
Refrigerators
Florence Ranges
Rugs
Tables
Toys-Wagons
Tricycles

Hope Hardware COMPANY

Tune this New Philco from anywhere in your home with PHILCO MYSTERY CONTROL!

No Wires. No Connections.

It's true! You tune this new Philco from any room in your home without going near the radio itself. First the Philco—the convenience, this revolutionary Philco invention, provides you with a new beauty of design, clearer, richer tone, complete radio pleasure for you and your family. Now this sensational new Philco... enjoy a Mystery Control demonstration now!

SERIAL STORY SKI'S THE LIMIT BY ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

CAST OF CHARACTERS
SALLY BLAIR—Heroine. She had everything that popularity could wish for, except...
DAN REYNOLDS—Hero. He might have had Sally but while he was king on skis...
COREY REYNOLDS—Sally's brother. He was king of the social whirl. So... But go on with the story.

CHAPTER III
THAT night the carnival was held and Sally officially was crowned Queen. A magic wand must have been waved to have produced such a crystal fairyland. The colorful pagodas, the spectacular floats, the brilliant flares, the huge blocks of ice carved in all manner of objects. On either side of the throne, raised at the top of the long silver stairway, stood two majestic lions, made from snow. Hidden lights, in rainbow colors, turned the crystal world into rose, then lavender, then gold. Last of all in the solemn procession came the Queen in the magnificence of regal robes, an ermine cloak with a train that spread for yards like a peacock's tail, a glittering scepter in her hand, a glittering tiara crowning her dark curls.

There were sighs and whispers and then a mighty thunder of applause and acclaim.
The carnival continued long into the night, until the last tiny star was enfolded in a cloud and put to bed, and the last song had died on the clear, crisp air and the Queen and her ladies in waiting found that their eyes were dream-lidded and their dancing slippers stilled. Nevertheless Sally Blair, her short reign ended, slipped out of bed before 6 o'clock that next morning, resumed the ordinary clothing of mortal maid, and crept out to meet the dawn.

Or, rather, to meet Dan Reynolds, who was waiting, true to his word, at the foot of practice hill.
"I DIDN'T think you'd make it," he said. He had not put any stars to bed. It was too important that he be in form for the last important events of the meet.
"I always keep my word," Sally returned. She looked as fresh as if she had had her regular beauty sleep; perhaps her dark eyes were a little brighter, her cheeks a bit more flushed. "I wasn't at all sure you'd keep yours," she challenged, swinging into step.

"Thanks." His mouth set in a grim line. It was a very nice mouth, even though it was so stern. He was not smooth and shining and fair like Corey. But there was a ruggedness, a strength about this boy that matched the mountains he set out to conquer.
He said, "Shall we use the tow-pulley to get to the top? It will save time." The tow-pulley was a long loop of rope, that fastened about one's waist, saved hours of laborious climbing.

Sally shook her head stubbornly. "I've plenty of time," she said, even though he had none for her, except this grudgingly extracted bit, of which she would make the most, or die in the attempt.
He helped her adjust her skis into the toe-plates, lightened the bindings with one firm pull. They herringboned up the hill, breaking the virgin snow that had fallen during the night.
"Want to rest?" Dan asked at the halfway mark. She had matched his silence with hers. She would show him she could share the companionship and stillness of a new day that was like a sanctuary in its stark purity.

SHE shook her head. They trudged on, side by side. It was glorious, the clean air washing against her face, filling her lungs, beckoning her on and on, up and up. But not so glorious as the down-trail, the hushed moment of the Schuss! when the ground would drop away beneath

Motorists wishing to utilize the full braking power of their motors should never disengage the clutch until just before their cars come to a complete stop.

Illustration by Henry G. Schlensker.
It was glorious, the clean air washing against her face, beckoning her on and on.

you, the wind hum in your ears as, like a feathered creature on the wing, you took the forest-bound run.

"Do you know anything about skiing?" Sally's instructor demanded sternly, the summit reached.

"A little," she admitted, with her dimpled smile. She should be better than she had been last year, after a month's vacation in Switzerland last spring, perfecting her real Alpine technique.
"Wouldn't Corey laugh if he could see her now, listening so attentively while Dan explained so earnestly the importance of relaxation, of keeping the skis together, the weight balanced?"
"Better begin with a few basic stems and snow plows first," he suggested, proceeding to put her through the easiest maneuvers.

"I think I can try it now," Sally said. She had endeavored to give a good demonstration of windmill gyrations, holding her body with ram-like stiffness. It would never do to let this serious boy know she was laughing up her sleeve at him.

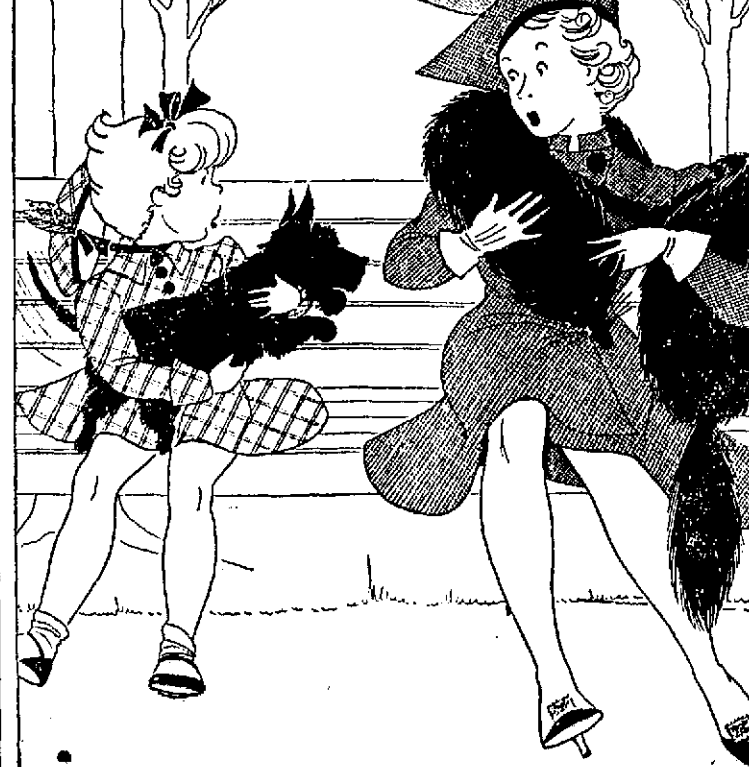

OR was she? Before this first lesson was over, Sally was so sure. He had been so patient, so painstakingly careful, so earnest and eager, when he finally accepted the idea that his pupil seemed in earnest, too. Sally, after a warm word of praise when she swung a telemark that was almost too agile for such a beginner as she, had the grace to feel a trifle ashamed.

Still, he had asked for it, she told herself fiercely, the lesson over, as he knelt before her to unsnap her skis.
"You did pretty swell for a girl." His direct gray eyes looked up into hers. "You'd make a real skier. If you could take it seriously enough."

"What makes you think I couldn't?" Sally asked.
She liked the way his hair rumbled in the breeze. No hat or masks or sun-goggles for Dan Reynolds. He was of the wind and sky, the clear, swift air of mountain tops.

At one time, according to health authorities, cow's milk was responsible for nearly 25 per cent of all tuberculosis in humans.

FLAPPER FANNY By Sylvia

"Then it musta snapped at him first! He never picks a fight."

Phone Service Is Given 39 Families

Two-Wire Construction by Bell Company Replaces Rural Lines

Thirty-nine farm families living on three highways leading into Hope will have the convenience of telephone service, some of them for the first time, at the completion of construction which is now under way.

Robert Bankson, district manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, said Wednesday that it will take approximately two months to build pole lines and make the necessary installations. Two-wire construction is being used, this type providing better telephone service, Mr. Bankson said, than the circuit made up of a single wire and the ground, a kind of telephone construction often found in rural areas.

More than 16 miles of pole line along Old Highway 67, the Shover Springs Road, and Spring Hill road will be used to serve the farm telephone subscribers.

In addition to these customers, Mr. Bankson said, several others in the area have had telephone service restored following some work done to determine the causes of unsatisfactory service on farm-owned lines and help correct them.

3 1/2 Millions for Rural Electricity

Southwest Arkansas Co-operative Gets $267,000 Allotment

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Rural Electrification Administration (REA) Wednesday allotted $3,447,000 for 30 projects in 14 states.

The allotments included: Garland, Ark., Southwest Arkansas Electric Co-operative corporation, $267,000 for 288 miles and 930 members in Polk, Sevier, Howard, Hempstead, Miller and Lafayette counties, Arkansas, and Bowie county, Texas.

17,557 Bales Cotton Ginned to December 1

There were 17,557 bales of cotton ginned in Hempstead county from the current crop prior to December 1, compared with 23,824 bales to the same date in 1937, according to W. H. Etter, federal gin reporter.

We, the Women By RUTH MILLETT

Everyone knows that not being able to get jobs is youth's biggest problem. But good ideas for solving the problem are few and far between. The best that seem to be offered are coming from a small group of educators who think high schools ought to teach trades to the boys and girls who aren't going on to college—instead of cramming their heads with Latin.

The group of educators who tell this way is small, for most teachers lean toward the scholarly, and a scholar likes to think practical things like earning a living aren't as important as being in life.

Still and all, the trend seems to be toward more practical education for the great bulk of high school students. Fighting for it is New York's Associate Superintendent Dr. Edward Mandel, who has been an educator for 50 years, and who thinks that today it is up to high schools to give their students the kind of vocational training the young used to get as apprentices.

He thinks it is about time, too, that students were taught that "there is a dignity to the shop equal to the dignity of the library."

While the educators are fighting among themselves the battle of academic subjects vs. vocational training the boys and girls who are in high school right now and know they won't be going on to college had better decide for themselves.

Will they be better fitted for the life they have to face if they have devoted most of their four years of secondary education to learning trade? Or would they rather have a smattering of culture, and get in the long line of persons waiting for "respectable" white collar jobs?

Anti-Lynch Bill May Be Revised

Senator Van Nuys Would Push Measure at Next Congress

WASHINGTON—(P)—Prospects for another Senate battle over an anti-lynching bill developed Wednesday with an announcement by Senator Van Nuys (Dem., Ind.) that the measure would be revised.

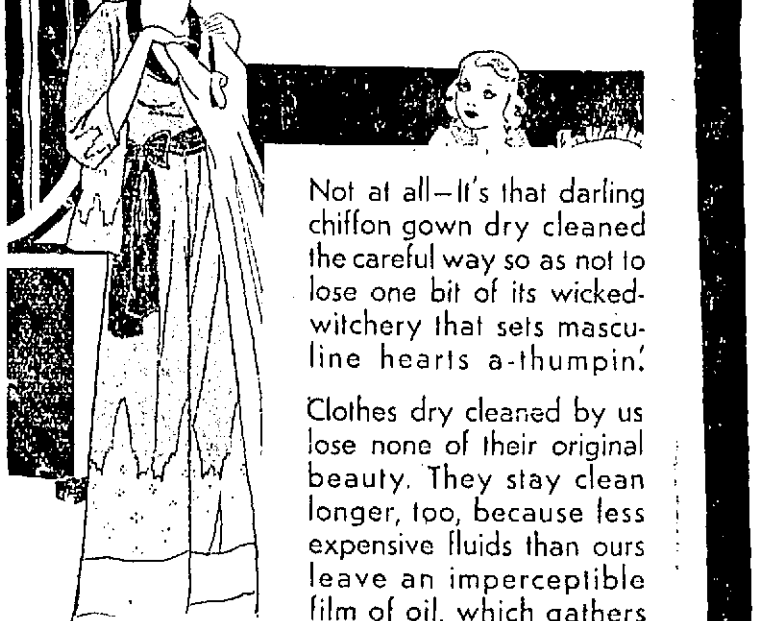

He said he would confer soon with Senator Wagner (Dem., N. Y.), co-author of last session's bill, which was shelved after a Southern filibuster. There were indications that the Southern bloc would filibuster any motion to bring up the bill again. Senator Connally (Dem., Tex.) predicted recently that it never would be brought to a vote.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile isn't flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up, your stomachs, you get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those two, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.

ANOTHER NEW DRESS FOR THE DANCE?

Not at all—It's that darling chiffon gown dry cleaned the careful way so as not to lose one bit of its wicked-witchery that sets masculine hearts a-thumpin'. Clothes dry cleaned by us lose none of their original beauty. They stay clean longer, too, because less expensive fluids than ours leave an imperceptible film of oil, which gathers dust.

HALL BROS. Cleaners and Hatters

Phone 335 111 South Elm

New 1939 DODGE TRUCKS

"TRUCK-BUILT" IN GIANT NEW TRUCK PLANT TO BRING YOU...

TAKE A TEST That's all DODGE asks...

NEW STYLE..ECONOMY!

NEW Larger Cabs...NEW Rust-proofed Metal... NEW Tough Amola Steel in Vital Parts...NEW Bigger Express Bodies...Sensational NEW Values!

FOR 1939, Dodge offers a complete line of sturdy, "truck-built" 1/4, 3/4, 1, 1 1/2, 2 and 3-ton trucks. Produced in the giant new Dodge truck plant, these new trucks are built to cost amazingly less to own and operate. In them you will find not just a few, but dozens of important new features. For example, due to huge new processing machinery, cabs and panel bodies as well as all sheet metal, are now rust-proofed, an advancement new to the truck world! New front bumper construction means extra strength. New "Amola" Steel means stronger springs and axles. New gas tanks are welded and spring mounted. Dodge now invites you to see for yourself how these new trucks revolutionize values in the lowest price field. Take a test, that's all Dodge asks. See your Dodge dealer.

WHAT "TRUCK-BUILT" MEANS—Dodge spent millions on this giant new truck plant especially engineered to build trucks. Dodge created new processing methods, built great new machines of almost superhuman accuracy to produce a new line of extra-quality trucks, priced with the lowest. So, in a few words, "truck-built" means "more truck for your money than ever before!"

Third & Walnut B. R. HAMM MOTOR Co.

Hope Arkansas

GIFTS For the Woman

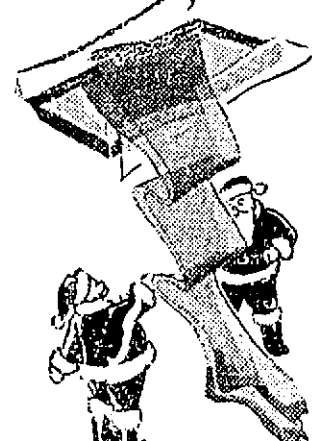

COSTUME JEWELRY

Bracelets, clips, novelties, dear to every woman are such trinkets as these. In spite of their expensive look they aren't high priced.

98c

HOSIERY

Don't give stockings. Give GOLD STRIPES. They're wonderfully sheer and come in all the wanted shades.

79c to $1.35

GLOVES

The gift always acceptable. Gloves are a necessity for the well dressed woman and enhance the appearance of any costume.

98c to $2.98

Feminine Under Things

Fancy, filmy, lacy underthings. Panties, slips, dancettes, gowns, all the things that gladden a woman's heart.

49c to $4.50

PURSES

98c to $2.95

KERCHIEFS

10c to 50c

HOUSE COATS

$2.95 to $7.50

HOUSE SHOES

49c to $2.95

Complete Selection Hall Bros. Hand Made Cards

Haynes Bros.

There is No Possible Substitute For Quality

Gay Trappings Add Sparkle to Even Humblest Presents

New York—Blue, in softer shades than formerly, and wine are the most popular colors in newspapers and ribbons in which to wrap Christmas packages. Bold stripes, solid colors and clear easy-to-distinguish prints are more in demand than all-over prints or tiny patterns so often lacking in character.

As always, traditional berry red and Christmas tree green are great favorites. This year, however, these often are combined with a touch of blue or gold or both to produce any number of wrapping papers that express the old-time spirit of Yuletide in designs unmistakably up-to-date. On one, gayly wrapped packages in red, green and blue sail over a bounding sea of green. On another, a wide variety of bright colored animals climb aboard Noah's ark. And a brilliant paper with penicill-type designs makes further use of this effective color scheme.

Gentle Delft Blue Is Outstanding Shade

Outstanding among the papers in the all-important blue is one in muted, almost delft shade which serves as a background for a design of gold bells interspersed with the word "greetings" in gold script. Another new paper of Parisian inspiration combines blue with soft rose, gold and white.

A heavy, shiny-surface wine paper cries for pain, but wide and handsome white satin ribbon. A brown one of the same de luxe quality would be stunning on a box tied with wide gold ribbon with a small cluster of gold lacquered pine cones in the center of the bow. Smartly sophisticated is the idea of wine paper with a soft, dusty bow and wine with both yellow and blue ribbons.

Among the wrappings for de luxe gifts there are a number of striking metallic effects, in solid silver and gold and in figured papers. One of this type uses gold as a background for green and white Christmas trees and gold stars circled in white.

Lots of Animals for Children's Gifts

Seals and stickers range from amusing bears and kittens, elephants and showmen to lovely repose plaques of gold or silver which give no dignity to the packages they adorn. Christmas trees of gold or silver are very popular. It's still smart to use stars, sticking several, one over the other, to form a multiple star.

Name tags and enclosure cards achieve greater distinction this year. Many booklets have all the formality of regular Christmas cards and appear in beautiful Florentine designs or photographic reproductions of out-of-door scenes. Holly sprays and poinsettias in red and silver on white will be widely used. One effective enclosure card shows three poinsettias in silver on white.

For money-gifts there are special enclosure cards with designs keyed to a lighter vein than formerly. The pack of a jolly Santa Claus is split to hold bill or check. A beaming colored Mummy's snowy white apron has a pocket into which money can be tucked. And another money card takes the form of a puffing engine driven by a laughing St. Nick. This unfolds to a "Santa Snow Train Special," one car of which holds a folded bill.

CLUB NOTES

The Ozan-St. Paul Home Demonstration club met December 7, at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Jones with an interesting Christmas program. After the club creed 20 members answered the roll call with what they would like best for Christmas. The business session was then held with Miss Bullington making announcements and plans for the new year. The following program was rendered: Song, "Joy to the World." Devotional. Planning gifts for Christmas, Mrs. O. C. Robins. An interesting Christmas study of other lands, led by Mrs. Chas. Lucke. Song, "Silent Night." Spirit of Christmas, Miss Elizabeth Hanna. Christ Child Walks on Christmas, Miss Willie Stuart.

After the distribution of gifts from a beautifully decorated tree the guests were led in a number of delightful contests after which Mrs. Jones assisted by several others served fruit cake and boiled custard.

The following officers were installed for the new year: President, Mrs. Shirley Stuart; vice president, Mrs. Luck Cowling; secretary treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Lucke; reporter, Mrs. Floyd Matthews; food preservation leader, Mrs. Ben Stuart; food preparation, Miss Alma Hanna; clothing, Mrs. O. C. Robins; poultry, Mrs. Eugene Goodlett; taxation, Mrs. Ben Goodlett; landscaping, Mrs. Wilbur Jones; home management, Mrs. Clifton City; art-craft, Mrs. Chas. City; child's care, Mrs. C. K. Osborn; recreation, Misses Willie Stuart and Elizabeth Hanna.

The next meeting will be January 4, 1939, with Miss Alma Hanna.

The murder and everything fits into my horoscope.—Robert Irwin, convicted of three murders, as he was taken to Sing Sing.

Whether it cost a great deal or very, very little any Christmas present seems twice as important and is a good deal more than twice as much fun to get if it's beautifully wrapped in smart paper and beautiful ribbon. The striped paper and the figured ones shown here are glittering examples of the new trend toward sharper, more distinct patterns.

RAISING A FAMILY

By Olive Roberts Barton

Most Children Get a Thrill Out of Helping to Decorate Their Homes for Christmas

Only the little children believe that Santa Claus can make a tree, a tree all gay with impossible fruits. They continue to want it a surprise, however, for some time after they know the truth. No matter how the pine or spruce gets into the house, and no matter who puts on its spangles, they don't want to see it until Christmas morning. Children continue to demand the magic of the Christmas tree until they are eight or ten years old.

But after a while they may begin to think they should have a hand in it themselves. I would ask them about it. If children want to share in the thrill of decorations, not only can they help set up the tree but they can hang the wreaths at the windows and put the holly around in vases or tie mistletoe to the top lights. A week before Christmas is not too early for the latter emblem of the season.

The scene under the tree may be left safely to these older children also. Let them improvise and invent. Of course, many parents go in for elaborate landscapes that require an older head, but I feel that this is Children's Day and the more they have to do with its preparation the better.

Collections of animals may be added to each year, and if you have the beginning of a pastoral set, a creche or manger scene, it is easy to go on from there. However, if the children do the buying and bring home giraffes and elephants to browse on the same turf with chickens and cows, what's the difference? Tigers and deer, side by side under the balsam, will remember it's Christmas and call a truce, with "peace on earth."

I bought set of little houses, at a dime each, that fit in beautifully with any plan. As to jungle scenes, the reproductions to be had for a few cents, of wild animals of any kind, are incredibly good. There are always lakes to be made with mirrors and mountains made of brooks. With, of course, cotton for snow, or green moss, real or apparent, overlaying the terrain.

Their prickly pear, a form of cactus native to the American southwest, has spread so widely in Australia as to cause widespread concern.

So They Say

Removing his pants was like skinning him.—Cecilia L. Schulz, New York nurse, reciting the experience of four nurses with a head surgeon of a hospital who refused to admit he was ill.

I carried this brick for two miles this morning to get my plan under way.—Unnamed man held in Washington, D. C., after smashing a window in the Japanese embassy in an effort to start war with Japan.

The first hot dog came from Boston.—W. S. Jones, whose family has sold frankfurters for three generations.

Gargle a sword now and then to avoid throat ailments.—John G. (Lucky) Ball, sword swallower of Hoxie, Kan.

I'm glad you liked it. The fine will be $500.—Municipal Judge Holland of Kansas City when Roy T. Bowers admitted he had turned in a false fire alarm to establish a record by having turned in false fire alarms in each of the 48 states.

Try Us For Your Meat Curing and Smoking. We Do It Right.

Home Ice Company
916 East Third Street
Hope, Ark.

American Radiator Floor Furnaces

Installed
Easy
Terms

Harry W. Shiver
PLUMBING-ELECTRICAL

NOTHING LIKE IT IN ANY OTHER CAR!

Healthful warmth

for all passengers
all winter!

DRIVE WITH CLEAR-HEADED SAFETY!
EVEN WITH ALL WINDOWS TIGHTLY CLOSED

WITH Studebaker's exclusive new central Climatizer, you can switch on living room warmth and comfort for all passengers—in rear seat as well as front seat.

Invisibly located under the front seat floor out of the way, Studebaker's Climatizer draws in 200 cubic feet of fresh air every minute—filters it, heats it and distributes it evenly throughout the car!

No cold floors—no cold feet, no drafts, no dust, rain or snow. Available in all models at extra cost.

LOW DOWN PAYMENT—C. I. T. TERMS

EXCLUSIVE!
REVOLUTIONARY!

Studebaker's

NEW CENTRAL CLIMATIZER

ARCHER MOTOR CO.

East Third Street

Hope, Arkansas

The Right Combination

All through the year and all around the clock Chesterfield's milder better taste gives millions
MORE PLEASURE

At Christmas time send these pleasure-giving cartons of Chesterfields—packaged in gay holiday colors—welcomed by smokers everywhere.

You'll find Chesterfields a better cigarette because of what they give you—more smoking pleasure than any cigarette you ever tried—the right combination of mild ripe home-grown and aromatic Turkish tobaccos rolled in pure cigarette paper.

Chesterfield

... the blend that can't be copied
... a HAPPY COMBINATION of the world's best cigarette tobaccos

Texas Tech, Its House Now in Order, Awaits Entry Southwest Conference

Red Raiders Often Denied, But Now Appear Good Choice to Make Conference an Eight-Team Loop Instead of Seven

By JERRY BRONFIELD
NEA Service Sports Writer

There's a new gridiron power rising in the southwest and it's threatening to make its sphere of influence extend over the national scene, and not merely the dusty plains of Texas.

The Red Raiders of Texas Tech, who romped to an unblemished record in a 10-game schedule and who will wage war with St. Mary's in the Cotton Bowl game at Dallas, New Year's Day, never have been a member of an athletic league, but the time appears to be ripe for them to make the Southwest Conference an eight-team loop instead of seven.

Situated in Lubbock, and perfectly located geographically for a spot in the league, Texas Tech, according to most critics in the section, is fit to travel in anyone's company.

The school, with an enrollment of slightly more than 3000, is the third largest in the Lone Star state, and is exceeded only by the University of Texas, with 9000, and Southern Methodist with 3300.

And because it is a technical school, a great majority of its students are boys.

From Sun Bowl to Cotton Bowl

Under the astute direction of Pete Cawthon, who knows football, and better still, how to teach it, the Red Raiders in the last two or three years have climbed from obscurity in the national scene to a place of respect.

A year ago they were nominated for the Sun Bowl game at El Paso, one of the lesser bowl affairs and were beaten by West Virginia, 7-6.

Now they're in the Cotton Bowl, performing in one of the better classes, before a big crowd, and with a chance to come into some important money.

According to southwest observers, Texas Tech several times has applied for entrance to the conference but each time has been refused, the underlying reason being its football requirements were not as strict as required.

Since the first application Tech set its scholastic house in very good order but again was turned down. A year ago a member of the state legislature even attempted to have a bill passed forcing the Southwest Conference to admit the Raiders, but it received little support because only two schools in the league—Texas and Texas A. & M.—are state supported.

However, inasmuch as rumors say Arkansas is thinking of applying for admission to the Missouri Valley Conference, the question will no doubt come up again. In the past, several Texas teams have balked at making the long trip to Fayetteville because of the lack of attendance.

Tarbox, Boyd Lead Raider's Cause

This year's edition of the Lubbock Larrippers took on 10 opponents from nine different states and whaled the daylight out of all of them.

On successive week-ends they whipped Montana State, Wyoming, Duquesne, Oklahoma City, Montana, Texas Mines, Loyola of New Orleans, Gonzaga, New Mexico, and Marquette.

In Elmer Tarbox, 115-pound triple threat, Cawthon has one of the finest halfbacks in the country. Abe Murphy, gigantic tackle, probably could make any varsity in the land, and is regarded as an equal to Texas Christian's I. B. Hale, which makes him a pretty fair lineman.

St. Mary's had one of the coast's bet-

Here's Looking at You, Saint Mary's! See You in the Cotton Bowl, Jan. 2!—Texas Tech

This is how the unbeaten and untied Texas Tech Red Raiders of Lubbock will line up against Saint Mary's College of California at the kickoff in the Dallas Cotton Bowl, Jan. 2. The line, left to right: Prince Scott, Abe Murphy, Dixie White, Rex Williams, Holt Waldrep, Leonard Hatch, and George Webb. The backfield, left to right: Elmer Tarbox, Jodie Marek, Raymond Flusche, and Gene Barnett. The boys of the South Plains bagged 10 contests that took them to nine states.

Williams, Holt Waldrep, Leonard Hatch, and George Webb. The backfield, left to right: Elmer Tarbox, Jodie Marek, Raymond Flusche, and Gene Barnett. The boys of the South Plains bagged 10 contests that took them to nine states.

Paul Harrison in Hollywood

Claire Trevor's Bustle Doesn't Ride Well in a Stage Coach

HOLLYWOOD.—Minute interviews:

Claire Trevor: "I'm getting a bit fed up on these location trips, especially when I have to spend most of my time crowded into a stage coach. These bustles aren't made for riding comfort. I'm not a very good girl in 'Stage Coach.' In fact in that scene you just watched the town's people were kicking me out. But all is forgiven in the end."

Robert Preston: "This part in 'Union Pacific' impresses me as my big break more and more every day. Now DeMille has me slated to sing a song. It'll be an old railroad song of the 1860's."

Ginger Rogers: "I had to have a massage every day during lunch hour when we were shooting the 'Yama Yama Man' dance. I wasn't used to doing splits, high kicks and cartwheels."

Thomas Mitchell: "Yes, I'm a drunkard doctor all through 'Stage Coach' and I deliver a baby under trying conditions, but it's the characterization is different from the doctor in 'Hurricane.' This picture is really a 'Grand Hotel' on wheels."

Bob Hope: "I think somebody must have let Mack Sennett in when they were writing 'Never Say Die.' First Alan Mowbray smears orange marmalade all over my face, then Martha Raye hits me in the eye with a pat of soft butter. The only good thing about this scene is that I don't care what they do next. There's nothing worse left to do."

Dorothy Lee: "It's grand to be working in pictures again, especially with Richard Dix. But I don't intend to make Hollywood my permanent home. As soon as I finish '12 Crowded Hours' I'm going back to Chicago. Oh yes, I'll be back for more, I hope."

Bill Boyd: "To really enjoy living in a horse should own and ride at least one horse. I have four, but 'Topper' is the one. I wouldn't trade him for the best horse ever bred, with the best automobile thrown in."

Madeline Carroll: "I've never ridden an aquaplane in my life and I don't see any good reason for doing it in 'Cafe Society.' Why should I keep a stunt girl out of a job?"

Bob Cummings: "My part in the next Durbin picture is really better than Denna's, but probably won't be by the time they finish rewriting her part. It's tough though trying to be a musician. I've been spending all my time with a music teacher, trying to learn to play a flute, piano, clarinet and saxophone. I don't really have to pay them but I have to be able to go through the motions like an artist."

Brian Aherne: "I don't see why I should try to kid anyone about this back eye. I got caught in a revolving door."

Robert Armstrong: "I like London a lot, but it's sure good to be back in Hollywood. Yes, I'm going to be working soon—in fact, I start in the Corrigan picture next week. Say, that kid really has a lot on the ball."

Harvey Stephens: "Working in 'Oklahoma Kid' is more dangerous than flying my glider. Yesterday Humphrey Bogart's gun went off and the blank burned a hole in my knee. They had to rush me to the hospital for antitetanus shots. Strangely enough I was shot in the same place by a blank once on the stage. I must be destined to lose this leg sooner or later. Well, glad to have seen you. I get killed in the next scene."

Jean Parker: "I can't get a very big kick out of Harry Langdon. I don't think he's funny but I laugh by just looking at Oliver Hardy. Hardy is my father in 'It's Spring Again' and, he's really a very good actor. Thanks for the lunch. Sorry I couldn't cut the blueberry pie, but I'm in the first scene after lunch and I can't have blue teeth."

Stunt Man Harvey Parry: "I'm doubling for Cagney so I come out that

A Book a Day

By Bruce Catton

A Mile Wide—An Inch Deep

It is too bad that more of our history isn't being written by the non-professional historians that is, by those authors who write in their own particular style about a subject close to their hearts and experiences.

The "Rivers of America" series published by Farrar and Rinehart have employed that technique with notable success in the three volumes already out now comes a fourth which gallops to the front, "Power Rives—Let'er Buck" by Struther Burt ($2.50).

Mr. Burt's Wyoming river, "a mile wide and an inch deep," is an ugly, treacherous stream starting nowhere in particular and ending up in the fashion, yet along its banks a great part of the west's history has been written. Out of the country of the Powder or land immediately adjacent to it have come some of the most important chapters of American life.

For here the Sioux made their last stand, the first white settlers cut a rutty ribbon leading north to Montana's gold fields, the Bozeman trail, here arrived the first lurching of the west's long trail from Texas and with them came that bow-legged character, the cowboy.

It was the loss of the Powder country that fired Red Cloud and Sitting Bull and Crazy Horses the other Indian chieftains to fight it out to the bitter end with the white man. Into that fight one-hot summer day in 1876 rode yellow-haired General Sill later the country of the Powder was to know another kind of a fight, the cattlemen's war against the rustler.

Today, the "ladies in pants," the dude rancher, ride the same range, but it is still a colorful Wyoming—P. G.F.

dear with my guns drawn. Bogart's double smacks me over the head with a breakaway chair, I dive for him and we go rolling down the stairs. There's nothing to it. All you have to do is relax. See, the only injury I got in that last take was a sprained wrist."

MIND Your MANNERS

T. M. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Test your knowledge of correct social usage by answering the following questions, then check against the authoritative answers below:

1. In eating a semi-solid food such as oatmeal, do you dip the spoon away from or toward yourself?

2. Should you then eat from the end or the side of the spoon?

3. Is it necessary to remove the spoon from your cup after you have finished stirring your beverage?

4. Is it correct to use your knife to scoop a baked potato out of the skin?

5. Should a knife be used to butter your potato?

What would you do if—

You are invited to a dinner party and you are on a very restricted diet?

(a) Accept and eat only what foods you are allowed?

(b) Accept and tell your hostess what foods you can eat so that she can arrange a special plate?

(c) Send your regrets and, if necessary, explain why?

Answers

1. Toward.

2. End.

3. Yes.

4. No.

5. No, a fork.

Best "What Would You Do?" solution—(c).

(Copyright 1938, NEA Service, Inc.)

City Meat Market
CHOICE K. C. MEATS, HOT
TAMALES AND OYSTERS.
PROMPT FREE DELIVERY.
PHONE 767

Master Shoe Rebuilders
123 So. Walnut St.
Anything in shoe repairing, New
Straps, New Elastic, Toe Lining,
Dying. No job to great or too small.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

PICTURES AT CHRISTMAS

Not a call to arms, but a call for the camera. Every Christmas brings picture chances such as this—plan your pictures now!

CAMERA hobbyists can give a new twist to the admonition, "Do our Christmas shopping early!" Their watchword should be, "Plan your Christmas pictures early!"

Of course, you probably won't receive that fine new camera until Christmas morning. (You're supposed to look surprised when you unwrap it.) But, for Christmas pictures before that time, the old camera will doubtless give good service. And what a lot of such pre-Christmas pictures there are to take, if the holiday story is to be fully told!

For example, there ought to be a good shot of you getting the Christmas tree. Maybe you buy the tree from a vendor. Or, maybe you go out into the country and cut your own. Either way, it's a picture.

Then there's the decorating of the tree to be pictured. And a shot of the children admiring it. And pictures of gifts being wrapped for friends. And members of the family placing packages. And pictures of the children peering out of the window, looking for Santa Claus. And, of course, the youngsters hanging up their stockings, and reluctantly going up to bed—a good stairway shot, with the children in their nightgowns.

These are pictures that introduce the Christmas story properly. Placed in the album in proper sequence, they have tremendous story value. They give you much more to remember—and half the fun of Christmas is in getting ready for it.

Christmas morning, of course, you can picture the opening of the gifts; the children enjoying new toys, and other members of the family trying on new gift scarves or jackets—all worth while. Then there are pictures at Christmas dinner, and in the afternoon, outdoor shots showing the new sled or bicycle on its first trial run.

Since many shots will be indoors, you'll need high speed film, a couple of amateur "flood" bulbs, and an inexpensive set of cardboard "lamp-shade-type" reflectors to use with them. Better have a few flash bulbs, too, for the occasional shot that requires them. And by all means make a list of "must" pictures—snapshots you are just bound to get. Telling the Christmas story is easier if you have such an outline to work from.

John van Guilder

1. THE RIGHT CAR . .
2. THE RIGHT DEALER

It doesn't cost you one extra dime to be absolutely safe in your used car purchase.

The standing of the dealer with whom you deal is of great importance. Go to the right dealer and you get the right used car—right price—right guarantee.

Our reputation for making good with our used car customers assures you of best values and fullest satisfaction. We've got the car you want—prices are right—terms liberal. Come in and see us. Let us show you these special offerings.

1937 FORD TUDOR
TRUNK—RADIO
$486.00

1937 FORD CO TUDOR
TRUNK
$350.00

1934 FORD TUDOR
NEW MOTOR
$200.00

1936 FORD TUDOR
TRUNK, RADIO
$400.00

1936 FORD COUPE
NEW MOTOR
$325.00

1936 STANDARD CHEVROLET
Good Condition
$375.00

35 Other Good Used Cars to Select From
Low Down Payments. Easy monthly terms. Let your old car make the down payment on one of these better used cars, and be free from worry and repairs.

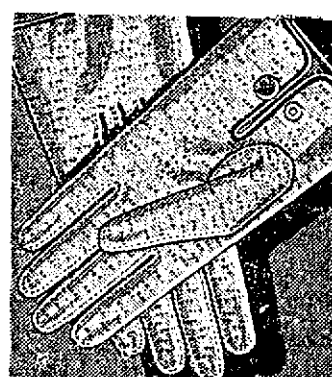

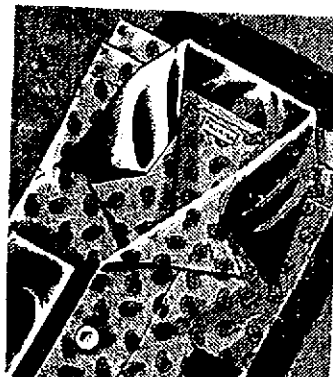

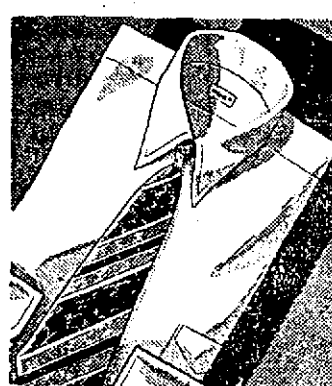

Your Ford Dealer

Hope Auto Co.

DECEMBER IS THE MONTH TO BUY A USED CAR

Final

CLEARANCE

SUITS

OUR ENTIRE STOCK

1/2 PRICE

Overcoats

25% Off

Still a good selection of sizes and patterns. These Suits and Coats from our regular stock.

If you have a Favorite in mind check the listing in the box at right.

10%

Discount

On Our Entire Stock of All Holiday and Furnishing Goods.

Ties,
Hosiery,
Shirts,
Underwear,
Hats,
Gloves,
Robes,
Pajamas,
Shoes,
Luggage,
Ladies Fitted Cases.

Buy Now for Christmas and Save!

For Cash Only.

Gorham & Gosnell

The Men's Store

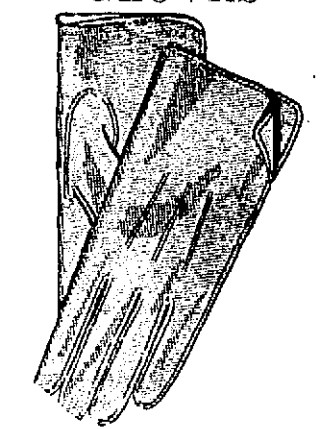

STETSON HATS

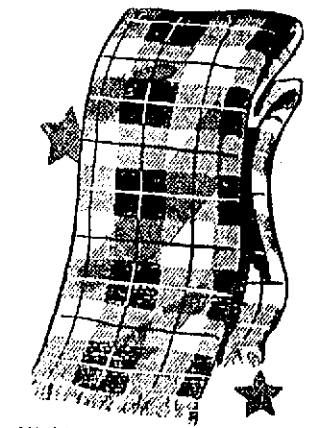

What man wouldn't appreciate a Stetson hat in one of the new shades and shapes. They're flattering to any head.

$5.00 and $6.00 GLOVES

Black, brown, gray, and tan gloves. Some lined and some are not. Pull on and snap styles to harmonize with any suit.

$1.25 to $2.95 MUFFLERS

Highly colored plaids and more subdued solid shades in wool, silk, rayon, and combinations of wool and rayon.

49c to $2.50 Kerchief & Tie

A perfectly blended set containing a tie and handkerchief that complement each other. An appreciated gift any time.

75c and $1.25 KERCHIEFS

Three hand made linen handkerchiefs with rolled edges and hand applied figures in the corners in a gift box.

75c PAJAMAS

From woven fabrics, broadcloths, satens, and silks in the styles men like. Tailored by Wilson Bros.

$1.95 to $5.00 ROBES

All wools, Jacquard fabrics, and pure silk styled to please men. The better robes all silk lined.

$5.95 to $13.50

Most of our gift items are put up in red and white Christmas boxes and are personalized by having the initial of the recipient placed on the box. Make his gift personal.

Haynes Bros.

There is No Possible Substitute For Quality

Bright Yuletide Decorations Make Home Sparkle Like Santa's Eyes

By NEA Service
NEW YORK—Small ornaments of polished metal foil which glow effectively, electric lights or no... Snow White and her brightly-colored seven dwarfs to dangle in a row from a branch... ornament hangers which are rustproof... fireproof snow for drapes under the tree... cellophane garlands and wreaths and icicles for windows and doors... sturdy Santa Claus cut-outs for mantels, tables and archways—these and many others are new, and lovely and sure to make decorating your home for the holidays a joy indeed.

It's smartest, of course, to decide on a color scheme and stick to it. One who likes blue and silver might trim with blue balls of glass and polished metal foil, garlands of silver tinsel, blue and white lights. Then use, on the hall table or the mantel over the fireplace, graceful clusters of silvered greens with a few blue lights at their base.

If green and red still remain your favorite Christmas colors and you cherish the memory of the old-fashioned trees you had as a child, you can work out simply stunning effects with red and green and have the old-fashioned tree which best goes with them.

Look at giant candles, some of which are guaranteed to burn for 90 hours, miniature cradles and lambs and sheep-herds to be used in groups among green boughs on tables and mantels. For an effective garland to trim a beautiful staircase, try wiring tiny hemlock boughs together in much the way your florist wires flowers and greens together to make a corsage. Fill a vase with long-necked pin boughs to which clusters of minute red berries of polished metal foil have been fastened. Or use a small silvered tree, trimmed with blue lights, set in a bank of shiny snow, as a centerpiece for your Christmas table.

Not Quilty Plea in Smuggling Scandal

Comedian George Burns and Judge's Wife Are Involved

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Albert N. Chaperon, "mystery man" of a smuggling scandal that already has involved comedian George Burns and a judge's wife, testified Tuesday he had no present intention of talking about his supposed acquaintance with other entertainment stars.

Chaperon, heavy-faced and impassive, pleaded innocent to the newest indictments against him, despite the plea of guilty made Monday by Burns, his accused co-defendant in one case. Chaperon had made the same plea to an earlier indictment which also named Mrs. Edgar Lauer, wife of a state supreme court justice.

Government investigators indicated Chaperon's decision to fight both cases had lessened the possibility of obtaining the official investigation to include testimony of various Hollywood stars.

A federal grand jury proceeded Tuesday with its inquiry, while Collette d'Arville, who has sung with the Metropolitan Opera Company, was interviewed by Assistant United States Attorney Joseph Delaney.

Miss d'Arville appeared voluntarily, and it was made clear she was not a suspect. The conversation was understood to have concerned the circumstances she was a dinner guest of the Laue's when Rose Weber, a German-born maid, was said by Chaperon to have created a scene because of table talk in denunciation of Adolf Hitler.

Chaperon, who says he is of Jewish extraction, has described himself as victim of the malice which he says arose in the maid because of her discharge by the Laue's. An affidavit by the maid aided the government's investigation of smuggling.

The government's claim is that Burns and Mrs. Lauer connived with Chaperon to obtain foreign goods duty free, Chaperon having been pictured as the actual carrier.

Burns asserted through counsel he innocently bought the jewelry for whose possession he was indicted. He is the husband of Gracie Allen and is her "straight man" as well in a weekly radio program which features Miss Allen's studied manities.

Let Us Help You With Your Gift List

Wheel Goods
BICYCLES, TRICYCLES
Skates, Autos, Tot-Bikes

Sturdy built for Real Boys and Girls—Our low prices will please you.

Electrical Appliances
"The practical gift that lasts."

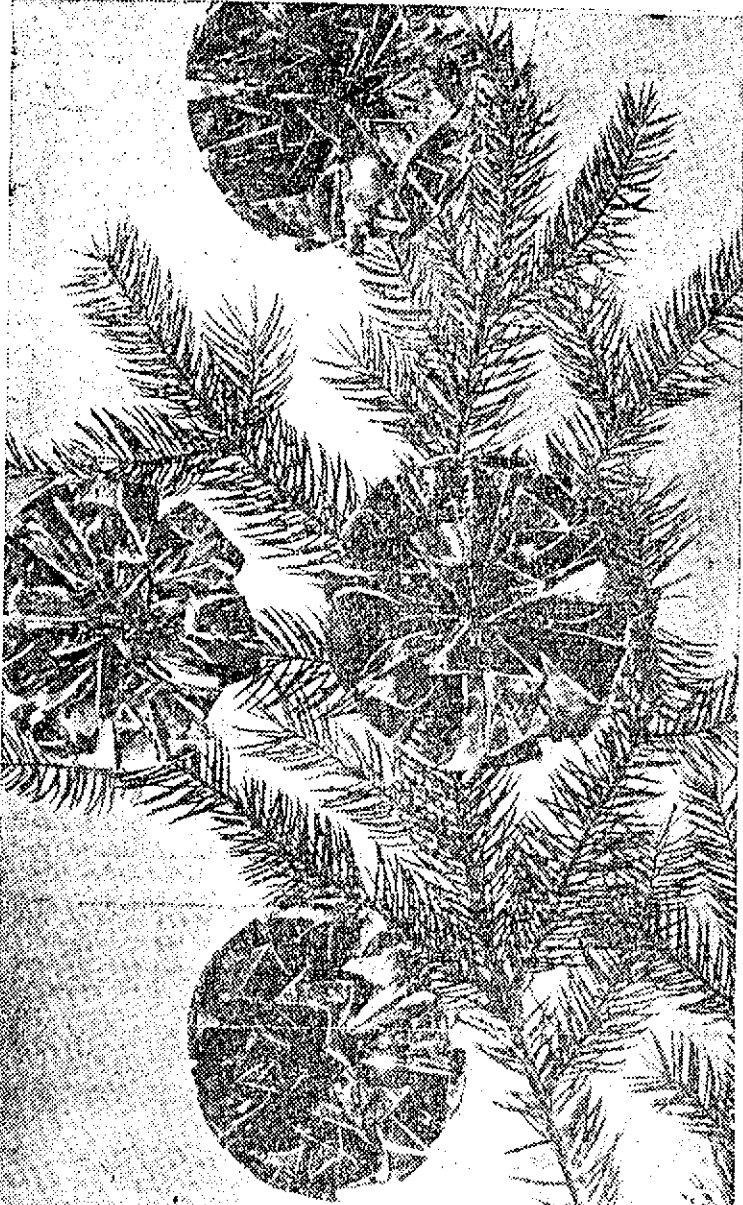

Underwriters Approval and Guarantee
Complete Selections
Low Prices

Play Santa to your Automobile—Give it a set of Davis De Luxe Tires. Also complete stock accessories.

Western Auto Associate Store
JOE T. RIDDLE, Owner Phone 747 214 South Main Street

Not at all unexpectedly, tiny replicas of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs are the newest ornaments for 1938's Christmas trees. By hanging Snow White on the tip of a branch and stringing the dwarfs out in single file behind her an effective arrangement is achieved.

These new Christmas tree ornaments of high lustre foil make the tree glow and glitter effectively even when electric lights aren't used.

Investigation of smuggling.

The government's claim is that Burns and Mrs. Lauer connived with Chaperon to obtain foreign goods duty free, Chaperon having been pictured as the actual carrier.

Burns asserted through counsel he innocently bought the jewelry for whose possession he was indicted. He is the husband of Gracie Allen and is her "straight man" as well in a weekly radio program which features Miss Allen's studied manities.

Let Us Help You With Your Gift List

Wheel Goods
BICYCLES, TRICYCLES
Skates, Autos, Tot-Bikes

Sturdy built for Real Boys and Girls—Our low prices will please you.

Electrical Appliances
"The practical gift that lasts."

Underwriters Approval and Guarantee
Complete Selections
Low Prices

Play Santa to your Automobile—Give it a set of Davis De Luxe Tires. Also complete stock accessories.

Western Auto Associate Store
JOE T. RIDDLE, Owner Phone 747 214 South Main Street

Underwriters Approval and Guarantee
Complete Selections
Low Prices

Play Santa to your Automobile—Give it a set of Davis De Luxe Tires. Also complete stock accessories.

Western Auto Associate Store
JOE T. RIDDLE, Owner Phone 747 214 South Main Street

Underwriters Approval and Guarantee
Complete Selections
Low Prices

Plans to Remedy "Unfair" Taxing

Arkansas Professor of Economics Offers Assessment Plan

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—(AP)—Dr. Estel E. Sparlin, University of Arkansas assistant professor of rural economics and sociology, Tuesday proposed four steps to remedy what he termed the "unfairness and inequalities" of the Arkansas tax assessment system.

The professor said a survey conducted by the university's general extension service demonstrated the assessment system's defects.

He proposed that the state provide for:

1. Selection of the county assessor on a merit basis in which the voter would give consideration to the fact that appraising property is a technical task and persons thoroughly trained in appraisal methods should be the assessors.

2. Revision of the Arkansas assessment law so that conflicts would be eliminated.

3. Addition of maps, card index systems and aerial photographs to the assessor's equipment.

4. Closer supervision of tax equalization.

The survey, Dr. Sparlin said, in a bulletin sent to members of the Arkansas Municipal League, covered 1936 rural properties scattered throughout the state and 877 properties located principally in Fayetteville, Fort Smith, Little Rock, El Dorado and Jonesboro.

Results of the survey showed: Small properties, which usually belong to people with low incomes, were assessed for more than they were actually worth. (As high as 107 per cent in the case of rural holdings.) Properties in the next higher value group were assessed at 85.4 per cent of true value.

Properties at the top of the value ladder were assessed ($10,000 to $40,000 worth) at less than one-half their true value, and (more than $40,000 worth) at less than one-third their true value.

City residential properties tended to be assessed at a lower ratio than business properties.

City residential properties built of brick were assessed at a lower percentage than other types of residential houses—with the discrepancy appearing to be in favor of the better buildings.

Properties were more uniformly assessed in El Dorado and Fayetteville than in Fort Smith and Little Rock, yet the concentration point in the first two cities was considerably below the legal assessment rate of 50 per cent.

Paul Revere Made Teeth

BOSTON.—(AP)—Paul Revere, known for his ride and for his silversmithing, also made false teeth. WPA workers conducting research into Massachusetts historical records found that Revere not only made the teeth but sold them.

Anthony Eden in Meet With F. D.

But No Understandings Are Reached Between Britain and U. S.

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—President Roosevelt and Anthony Eden, the man who would like to see world democracy adopt a firm attitude toward dictatorship, discussed international problems at a half hour session Tuesday but left the world to guess just what had happened between them.

The chief executive and the former secretary of Great Britain met in the presidential study. The meeting was informal, but this failed to dispel belief here the conversation was fraught with significance for Anglo-American friendship.

The consensus in informed quarters was that no commitments were discussed or made, but that both men used the opportunity to review democratic problems in a world disturbed by power politics of totalitarian states.

Few unofficial conversations in recent years had attracted as much interest as Tuesday's meeting, partially because of the prominence of the principals and the timing of Eden's visit soon after the Munich agreement and President Roosevelt's prolonged review of foreign affairs with several of his European ambassadors.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Ruth Etting Marries Her Wounded Suitor

DAS VAGAS, Nev.—(AP)—In a swift-moving accompaniment to the trial at Los Angeles of her former husband, Martin Snyder, for attempted murder, Miss Ruth Etting married Myrl Alderman, former pianist whom Snyder is accused of shooting, here Wednesday.

The chief executive and the former secretary of Great Britain met in the presidential study. The meeting was informal, but this failed to dispel belief here the conversation was fraught with significance for Anglo-American friendship.

The consensus in informed quarters was that no commitments were discussed or made, but that both men used the opportunity to review democratic problems in a world disturbed by power politics of totalitarian states.

Few unofficial conversations in recent years had attracted as much interest as Tuesday's meeting, partially because of the prominence of the principals and the timing of Eden's visit soon after the Munich agreement and President Roosevelt's prolonged review of foreign affairs with several of his European ambassadors.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever he appeared, said he enjoyed the visit but left it to the president to explain further. Mr. Roosevelt simply said he and Eden talked of many things and agreed they had a very pleasant conversation.

Eden, who received a public ovation wherever

Hints for Well-Groomed Yuletide

By ALICIA HART
NEA Service Staff Writer
NEW YORK—Holly-trimmed cosmetic counters are laden with Christmas gifts that every member of the family will love.

From spicy sachet pillows for grandmother to miniature nail brushes and manicure sets for small boys and girls, there's the right beauty gift for every person on your list—not skipping father, brother, Uncle John and your best beau.

Your best girl, whether wife, sweetheart or mother, may have a favorite brand of perfume. These and many new varieties, too, come in unbelievably stunning bottles. Three tiny flacons with graceful plume-like stoppers are packaged in an attractive box trimmed with similar plumes. A softly lighted Christmas tree, with a sparkling white base, is loaded with eleven flacons of fine perfume. It comes complete with electric cord and plug for illumination and would be a gift de luxe indeed. Incidentally, the perfume tree would make a nice centerpiece for a Christmas party table—with a falcon for each guest.

Two tiny bottles of fine perfume, their tops swathed in white leather, are done up in a regal looking box of simulated white leather with gold trimming. Five tiny perfume spheres hang from the stem of a bright colored oak leaf. A crown of perfume comes in a Christmas bell. And a set of two sparkling white bells contains two perfumes from a famous manufacturer.

Cosmetics and Bath Items
Among other new items that are sure to bring Christmas delight to any woman you know are: a set of rouge, powder and lipstick to wear with her black dresses; giant size bath soap (1 pound) in assorted scents and flower shapes; a milkman's miniature basket rack of red wire with eight chubby bottles of pasteurized milk powder for the bath; a charming silk envelope for the purse with compartments for compact, lipstick, comb, six colorful swansdown puffs in a transparent box; spicy toilet water, bath salts, talcum and soap in a miniature trunk of early American design.

Also, a wooden bowl of potpourri to keep on the closet shelf; a good hairbrush with satinwood back and genuine, first quality boar bristles; a hand-decorated, three-piece wood dresser set with a stylized flower basket motif; a dusting powder travel box with a separate compartment for the puff; a condiment set including two tall white shakers—one filled with perfumed oil for the bath, the other with spicy after-bath talcum powder.

If you know her well enough to know her preferences and coloring, send a huge jar of her favorite cleansing cream or night cream or both; face powder, a couple of lipsticks; glamorous eye makeup; hand lotion in a festive package; two or three bottles of fine nail polish or even a jar of mask cream. And, as always, a ticket for a facial or a new permanent wave or course of exercise treatments cannot be beaten.

Men's Shaving Equipment
For the leading man in your life there's a locker kit in a pigskin case containing shaving cream, comb, brush, lotion and several other necessary items. This has several extra compartments for extra gadgets he'll want to pack himself.

Also worth consideration are: shaving soap in a dapper-shave lotion in wood containers with the simplest kind of lettering; a pair of handsome satinwood military brushes in a red, white and gold box; three bath-size cakes pine-scented soap in waterproof box; a streamlined shaving brush in a cylindrical case which holds the brush—bristles downward—when it isn't in use; greenless hair tonic in a manish looking pottery jug.

FOR A BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS—New beauty items include a wooden comb, brush and mirror set with stylized flower basket motif; the newest manicure sets; sachet pillows; dusting powder and a cluster of five tiny shakers of perfume attached to a colorful oak leaf. Inserted at top are two lovely compacts, one with turquoise-studded starfish design, the other with a huge amethyst in black enamel. Between them is a bottle of oil to keep set, so that her nails will be clean and neat? A small fish-shaped nail brush will be useful in this project, too. Then there are comb, brush and mirror sets in small sizes. And a variety of tiny sachet pillows, a set of which might inspire a child to keep the drawers of her dresser neater.

Manicure Sets For Girls
To encourage your small daughter to

—From Lucien Lelong.
Perfume Tree—This Christmas tree which comes complete with electric cord and tiny lights, is trimmed with eleven little flacons of good perfume.

Keep herself well-groomed, there are lots of good ideas on the Christmas counters.

How about a miniature manicure set, so that her nails will be clean and neat? A small fish-shaped nail brush will be useful in this project, too. Then there are comb, brush and mirror sets in small sizes. And a variety of tiny sachet pillows, a set of which might inspire a child to keep the drawers of her dresser neater.

McCaskill

Miss Mary Ball and Irene Wardlaw were visitors to Hope Thursday.

Harold Gorham of Longview, Texas, spent the week-end with his mother Mrs. M. O. Gorham.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martin and daughter Johnnie were shopping in Hope Saturday.

Mrs. Graydon Anthony and Mrs. Dora Wortham were visitors in Prescott Tuesday.

Misses Era Kelley and Waldine Williams spent Saturday in Nashville.

Miss Aline Wilson spent the week-end visiting relatives in Gurdin.

Miss Evelyn Rhodes was a Nashville visitor Saturday.

Graydon Anthony made a business trip to Pine Bluff Wednesday.

Mrs. L. J. Choate and daughter, Betty Sue, who have been visiting relatives here, returned to their home in Nachitoches, La., Saturday.

Alvis Stokes of Delight spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Eley.

At affairs of state in Washington, custom gives precedence to foreign ambassadors over all American officials except the president and vice-president.

Decorations

The Christmas spirit is in evidence early in Hempstead county homes, now that the harvest season is over and busy farm families can take some time out to make festive plans for the holidays.

Mrs. A. H. Rhodes of the McCaskill home demonstration club made a table decoration using a homelike pine needle basket filled with seashore shells and apple leaves which had been dipped in gay colors.

Living-at-home has just as much to do with Christmas as any other time of the year, for the farm has much to offer in the way of Christmas decorations and gifts.

Miss Sue Marshall, extension specialist in clothing and household arts, University of Arkansas College of Agriculture, offers several suggestions for using products of the farm during the Christmas season in decorating the house and setting the stage for holiday fun.

A table decoration of fruits and vegetables and for either the dining room or living room can be provided from the storage cellar, and is particularly attractive when the products are arranged in a large yellow, green or brown bowl, Miss Marshall suggests.

Then why not a live Christmas tree—one that will not die during a few days and scatter leaves all over the floor. Transplant a small cedar, pine, or holly tree into a box, bucket or can so it can be watered. Keep the soil moist and it will last for a month or longer and can be planted in the yard later to be used for other Christmas-nuses, she suggests. The Christmas tree can be set on the floor, on a table, or in a window. If one has electric lights, the tree can be decorated with colored lights. If not, sweet gum balls may be painted silver and gilt or dipped in bright colored quick drying lacquer. Bright colored cellophane, strings of red berries from the woods, and popcorn can be used for further decoration.

Wreaths may be made of holly, cedar, or pine for the windows and doors. These may be tied with bright colored ribbon or bows of crepe paper. Miss Marshall advises taking down some of the regular accessories used in the home while the Christmas decorations are being used so the house does not have a stuffed, crowded appearance.

Winter bouquets of red berries and seed pods of various kinds have many possibilities as decorations.

The curtains and draperies should be washed or pressed if needed and the floors freshly oiled, waxed, or painted for the occasion. "When this is done, get a festive look on your face and it will be a 'Merry Christmas for you and your family,' declares Miss Marshall.

Let the silly season for Mars Monsters come to a close—Dr. F. R. Moulton, secretary of the American Association for the Advancement of Science speaking of the impossibility of reaching another planet.

do with Christmas as any other time of the year, for the farm has much to offer in the way of Christmas decorations and gifts.

Hempstead Home Agent

Melva Bullington

Christmas Boxes
The woods of Hempstead county offer many possibilities for making decorative Christmas boxes, and home demonstration club women are taking advantage of them.

Pine cones which are found abundantly on Hempstead county farms have been converted into candle holders; pine needle baskets are being used for nuts, fruits and pop corn containers.

Arkansas grown apples polished until they shine packed in a basket lined with sweet scented cedar is a suggestion offered by Miss Sybil D. Bates, extension specialist in home industries, University of Arkansas College of Agriculture, as a gift which will appeal to the eye as well as the appetite. A two-gallon melon-shaped basket made from hickory splints give another attractive container for apples. A sprig of holly tied to the handle with a red cellophane bow is another idea for a festive package.

Small boxes after being packed and wrapped can be given a spirit of gaiety by fastening a sprig of holly, mistletoe, or a small pine branch bearing a cone or two in the bow of the cord used for tying.

Peccans, black walnut and hickory nuts, found in practically every part of Arkansas, if hulled and packed in attractive containers, are always a welcome gift to the person who likes to make candy or cakes.

Half the joy of the holiday season comes with planning attractive gifts, declares Miss Bates, adding that it also offers opportunity for one to show ingenuity and originality.

Mrs. C. P. Zimmerman of the Melrose club makes Arkansas Fruit cakes each year and send them as gifts to relatives and friends in other states. Last year the cakes went to seven states.

Decorations

The Christmas spirit is in evidence early in Hempstead county homes, now that the harvest season is over and busy farm families can take some time out to make festive plans for the holidays.

Mrs. A. H. Rhodes of the McCaskill home demonstration club made a table decoration using a homelike pine needle basket filled with seashore shells and apple leaves which had been dipped in gay colors.

Living-at-home has just as much to do with Christmas as any other time of the year, for the farm has much to offer in the way of Christmas decorations and gifts.

Miss Sue Marshall, extension specialist in clothing and household arts, University of Arkansas College of Agriculture, offers several suggestions for using products of the farm during the Christmas season in decorating the house and setting the stage for holiday fun.

A table decoration of fruits and vegetables and for either the dining room or living room can be provided from the storage cellar, and is particularly attractive when the products are arranged in a large yellow, green or brown bowl, Miss Marshall suggests.

Then why not a live Christmas tree—one that will not die during a few days and scatter leaves all over the floor. Transplant a small cedar, pine, or holly tree into a box, bucket or can so it can be watered. Keep the soil moist and it will last for a month or longer and can be planted in the yard later to be used for other Christmas-nuses, she suggests. The Christmas tree can be set on the floor, on a table, or in a window. If one has electric lights, the tree can be decorated with colored lights. If not, sweet gum balls may be painted silver and gilt or dipped in bright colored quick drying lacquer. Bright colored cellophane, strings of red berries from the woods, and popcorn can be used for further decoration.

Wreaths may be made of holly, cedar, or pine for the windows and doors. These may be tied with bright colored ribbon or bows of crepe paper. Miss Marshall advises taking down some of the regular accessories used in the home while the Christmas decorations are being used so the house does not have a stuffed, crowded appearance.

Winter bouquets of red berries and seed pods of various kinds have many possibilities as decorations.

The curtains and draperies should be washed or pressed if needed and the floors freshly oiled, waxed, or painted for the occasion. "When this is done, get a festive look on your face and it will be a 'Merry Christmas for you and your family,' declares Miss Marshall.

Let the silly season for Mars Monsters come to a close—Dr. F. R. Moulton, secretary of the American Association for the Advancement of Science speaking of the impossibility of reaching another planet.

do with Christmas as any other time of the year, for the farm has much to offer in the way of Christmas decorations and gifts.

do with Christmas as any other time of the year, for the farm has much to offer in the way of Christmas decorations and gifts.

Miss Sue Marshall, extension specialist in clothing and household arts, University of Arkansas College of Agriculture, offers several suggestions for using products of the farm during the Christmas season in decorating the house and setting the stage for holiday fun.

A table decoration of fruits and vegetables and for either the dining room or living room can be provided from the storage cellar, and is particularly attractive when the products are arranged in a large yellow, green or brown bowl, Miss Marshall suggests.

Then why not a live Christmas tree—one that will not die during a few days and scatter leaves all over the floor. Transplant a small cedar, pine, or holly tree into a box, bucket or can so it can be watered. Keep the soil moist and it will last for a month or longer and can be planted in the yard later to be used for other Christmas-nuses, she suggests. The Christmas tree can be set on the floor, on a table, or in a window. If one has electric lights, the tree can be decorated with colored lights. If not, sweet gum balls may be painted silver and gilt or dipped in bright colored quick drying lacquer. Bright colored cellophane, strings of red berries from the woods, and popcorn can be used for further decoration.

Wreaths may be made of holly, cedar, or pine for the windows and doors. These may be tied with bright colored ribbon or bows of crepe paper. Miss Marshall advises taking down some of the regular accessories used in the home while the Christmas decorations are being used so the house does not have a stuffed, crowded appearance.

Winter bouquets of red berries and seed pods of various kinds have many possibilities as decorations.

The curtains and draperies should be washed or pressed if needed and the floors freshly oiled, waxed, or painted for the occasion. "When this is done, get a festive look on your face and it will be a 'Merry Christmas for you and your family,' declares Miss Marshall.

Let the silly season for Mars Monsters come to a close—Dr. F. R. Moulton, secretary of the American Association for the Advancement of Science speaking of the impossibility of reaching another planet.

do with Christmas as any other time of the year, for the farm has much to offer in the way of Christmas decorations and gifts.

Miss Sue Marshall, extension specialist in clothing and household arts, University of Arkansas College of Agriculture, offers several suggestions for using products of the farm during the Christmas season in decorating the house and setting the stage for holiday fun.

A table decoration of fruits and vegetables and for either the dining room or living room can be provided from the storage cellar, and is particularly attractive when the products are arranged in a large yellow, green or brown bowl, Miss Marshall suggests.

Then why not a live Christmas tree—one that will not die during a few days and scatter leaves all over the floor. Transplant a small cedar, pine, or holly tree into a box, bucket or can so it can be watered. Keep the soil moist and it will last for a month or longer and can be planted in the yard later to be used for other Christmas-nuses, she suggests. The Christmas tree can be set on the floor, on a table, or in a window. If one has electric lights, the tree can be decorated with colored lights. If not, sweet gum balls may be painted silver and gilt or dipped in bright colored quick drying lacquer. Bright colored cellophane, strings of red berries from the woods, and popcorn can be used for further decoration.

Wreaths may be made of holly, cedar, or pine for the windows and doors. These may be tied with bright colored ribbon or bows of crepe paper. Miss Marshall advises taking down some of the regular accessories used in the home while the Christmas decorations are being used so the house does not have a stuffed, crowded appearance.

Winter bouquets of red berries and seed pods of various kinds have many possibilities as decorations.

The curtains and draperies should be washed or pressed if needed and the floors freshly oiled, waxed, or painted for the occasion. "When this is done, get a festive look on your face and it will be a 'Merry Christmas for you and your family,' declares Miss Marshall.

Let the silly season for Mars Monsters come to a close—Dr. F. R. Moulton, secretary of the American Association for the Advancement of Science speaking of the impossibility of reaching another planet.

do with Christmas as any other time of the year, for the farm has much to offer in the way of Christmas decorations and gifts.

Miss Sue Marshall, extension specialist in clothing and household arts, University of Arkansas College of Agriculture, offers several suggestions for using products of the farm during the Christmas season in decorating the house and setting the stage for holiday fun.

A table decoration of fruits and vegetables and for either the dining room or living room can be provided from the storage cellar, and is particularly attractive when the products are arranged in a large yellow, green or brown bowl, Miss Marshall suggests.

Then why not a live Christmas tree—one that will not die during a few days and scatter leaves all over the floor. Transplant a small cedar, pine, or holly tree into a box, bucket or can so it can be watered. Keep the soil moist and it will last for a month or longer and can be planted in the yard later to be used for other Christmas-nuses, she suggests. The Christmas tree can be set on the floor, on a table, or in a window. If one has electric lights, the tree can be decorated with colored lights. If not, sweet gum balls may be painted silver and gilt or dipped in bright colored quick drying lacquer. Bright colored cellophane, strings of red berries from the woods, and popcorn can be used for further decoration.

Wreaths may be made of holly, cedar, or pine for the windows and doors. These may be tied with bright colored ribbon or bows of crepe paper. Miss Marshall advises taking down some of the regular accessories used in the home while the Christmas decorations are being used so the house does not have a stuffed, crowded appearance.

Winter bouquets of red berries and seed pods of various kinds have many possibilities as decorations.

The curtains and draperies should be washed or pressed if needed and the floors freshly oiled, waxed, or painted for the occasion. "When this is done, get a festive look on your face and it will be a 'Merry Christmas for you and your family,' declares Miss Marshall.

Let the silly season for Mars Monsters come to a close—Dr. F. R. Moulton, secretary of the American Association for the Advancement of Science speaking of the impossibility of reaching another planet.

do with Christmas as any other time of the year, for the farm has much to offer in the way of Christmas decorations and gifts.

Miss Sue Marshall, extension specialist in clothing and household arts, University of Arkansas College of Agriculture, offers several suggestions for using products of the farm during the Christmas season in decorating the house and setting the stage for holiday fun.

A table decoration of fruits and vegetables and for either the dining room or living room can be provided from the storage cellar, and is particularly attractive when the products are arranged in a large yellow, green or brown bowl, Miss Marshall suggests.

Then why not a live Christmas tree—one that will not die during a few days and scatter leaves all over the floor. Transplant a small cedar, pine, or holly tree into a box, bucket or can so it can be watered. Keep the soil moist and it will last for a month or longer and can be planted in the yard later to be used for other Christmas-nuses, she suggests. The Christmas tree can be set on the floor, on a table, or in a window. If one has electric lights, the tree can be decorated with colored lights. If not, sweet gum balls may be painted silver and gilt or dipped in bright colored quick drying lacquer. Bright colored cellophane, strings of red berries from the woods, and popcorn can be used for further decoration.

Old-Time Newsies Keep Change to Help Kids

By the AP Feature Service
DETROIT—About this time of year, grown men who used to be Detroit newsboys take bundles of newspapers to their old corners and sell them to passersby.

They give no change and the money they take in provides 65,000 children with warm clothes, shoes and toys. This year the Detroit Old Newsboys' Goodwill Fund will raise $150,000.

It all started 25 years ago when a handful of men who once had been newsboys here took up the idea as a means of raising money for charity.

Now the whole story is being told in a new book just off the press, "The Story of the Goodfellows," by Ernest P. Lajoie, a former president of the fund and a former circuit judge and a practicing attorney. It is being mailed to editors all over the country and will serve as a guide to any other communities which may decide to start similar movements.

Veterans of Spanish War Face Struggle in Canada

VANCOUVER, B. C.—(AP)—Canadian veterans who fought for loyal Spain are drifting back to their homes, facing more serious problems than those who returned from the World War.

Some are wounded and virtually all are jobless and Canada provides no pension for them. Private subscriptions thus far have been enough to provide them with medical treatment and an allowance of $5 a week each.

Clerk Closes Deal in Stocking Feet

GREENFIELD, Ohio.—(AP)—Ralph Head, shoe clerk, believes the customer must be pleased.

Head fitted several pairs of shoes on man customer, but none clicked. "The only shoes I like," said the customer, "are those you wear."

"All right," said Head, "I'll sell them to you." He took off his shoes, and the latter bought them.

Leaves Flying in One Day

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—(AP)—Eliot Dolbins, music teacher, took his first lesson at the Sacramento airport Thursday and made his first solo flight Friday.

1938 PENNEY'S YEAR

Give More! Spend Less!

GIVE MORE! SPEND LESS!

BUY ALL YOUR GIFTS AT PENNEY'S

SAVE time and energy right from the start—Shop PENNEY'S for every gift on your list! HURRY! now while stocks are complete, and do your Christmas shopping. SHOP AND COMPARE!

LADIES Beautiful Capeskin GLOVES Black or Brown $1.00 Pair	Ladies Plain Tailored Sport Coats 12 to 20 $7.90 A Value!	Ladies Plain & Fur Trimmed Suits 12 to 20 $14.75 A Value!	AT PENNEY'S SMART Gift Wrappings 5¢ and 10¢
The Famous CYNTHIA SLIPS Adjustable Straps, 4 Gore, Rip-proof seams. 98¢	LADIES BEAUTIFUL STYLED RAYON Satin Gowns Tailored or Trimmed Models $1.98	A Remarkable Value! Toilet Set Comb, Brush, Mirror, Puff Box, Cream Jar, Glass Tray— $4.98	Genuine 4-Point HUDSON BLANKETS 100% pure wool These Famous Blankets are ideal gifts. $13.75 Each
Women Prefer Fitted Luggage Week-End CASE Extra Fit—$9.90 ted Case $9.00	New Fashion Dutch Heel House Slippers 98¢ pr	The Gift He'll Like! MEN'S FINE QUALITY SUITS Single or Double Breasted Models—34 to 46 Greens, Blues, Grays $14.75	MEN'S FINE QUALITY TOPCOATS $10.00

PENNEY'S

ACROSS STREET FROM POSTOFFICE
WHERE HOPE SHOPS AND SAVES

The GIFT Without Peer DIAMONDS

the perfect gift... a BULOVA WATCH!

When you give a Bulova Watch you know you are giving the very best... a gift that will be prized and cherished for years to come.

Diamond Rings: Five fiery brilliant Diamonds! ... $25
Wedding Ensemble: 11 Diamonds! New ... $45

HORATIO $24.75
CATHERINE ... 17 jewels $29.75
MINUTE MAN ... 17 jewels $33.75

Bulova Hamilton Westfield and Egin WATCHES

All Gifts Neatly Boxed

Stewart's Jewelry Store
First National Bank Building

Flashing beauty! Romance! The joy that only Diamonds can bring! The Gift she wants—from you! Stewart's has a marvelous selection of Diamonds at prices that mean definite savings for you!

Diamonds From $10 to $250.00.
Complete line of Jewelry, Silverware and Glassware and Shutter Pens.

STORIES IN STAMPS

UNITED STATES POSTAGE
21 CENTS

Assassination Elevated Arthur to Presidency

CHESTER ALAN ARTHUR first won his spurs in the law in the famous Lemmon case of New York. The case, tried in the decade before the Civil War, involved validity of certain phases of the fugitive slave law. So skillfully did Arthur marshal his evidence that he won a verdict from New York's highest court that any slave being transported from one slave state to another became free while in the boundaries of New York.

During the Civil War itself Arthur won wide recognition for his work as quartermaster general of New York state. In 1871, partly as a reward for his long Republican political activity, he was named collector of the port of New York by President Grant. Four years later he was reappointed, but subsequently was removed by President Hayes over disagreement as to civil service reform.

But Arthur was not long out of politics. In fact, he moved up to the vice presidency, where he waged a powerful influence in patronage matters, culminating in the resignation of two members of the Senate. Then President Garfield was shot and Arthur immediately succeeded him.

Hardly had he taken office, however, when he reversed his political efforts. He swung from the old partisanship to a full recognition of the great cares of his office. Tariff legislation and development of the navy were the main highlights of his term. The President is shown here on a stamp of the new U. S. regular series, enlarged.

(Copyright, 1938, NEA, Inc.)

Santa Claus Day

THURSDAY
December 15
3 to 5 p. m.

Free Candy and Small Toys to the Kiddies

Bring Your Letter to Santa Claus

Scott Stores

"Hope's Leading 5 and 10c Store"